The Socialist Republic of Romania

Teacher: Let's have a Geography lesson in English today.
Well, children, this is the map of Europe.
Now point to Romania on this map. Can you find it?

Dan: Yes, of course, here it is.

Teacher: Where does Romania lie?

Dan: Romania lies in Europe.

Teacher: What is the country's full name?

Dan: The country's full name is the Socialist Republic of Romania.

Teacher: Who is the President of the Socialist Republic of Romania?

Doris: Comrade Nicolae Ceaușescu is the General Secretary of the Romanian Communist Party and the President of the Socialist Republic of Romania.

Teacher: What is the capital of Romania?

Dan: Bucharest is. Bucharest is a very large town. It is the largest town in Romania.

Teacher: Where is Bucharest? Is Bucharest in the mountains?

Doris: No, it isn't. It lies in the middle of large fields.

Teacher: Now look at the map again. Point to the Carpathians. Where are they?

Doris: Here they are. These are the Carpathians. They are very high. They are the highest mountains in Romania.

Teacher: What about the Danube river? Point to the Danube now.

Doris: This is the Danube river. It is a very long river.

Paul: Teacher, teacher, I want to say something.

Teacher: What is it, Paul?

Paul: The Danube is the longest river in Romania.

Teacher: Very good. What else can you tell us about the Danube?

Paul: It flows into the Black Sea.

Teacher: That's right, Paul. The Danube is the longest river in Romania and it flows into the Black Sea. Now, children, there is another important thing about Romania. All over the country there are new towns and villages with factories and farms where people work together for a better life.

6. Read:

"Going to" Future (Viitorul cu "going to")

I	am		sing a song.
He			learn a new poem.
She			repeat the lesson.
It	is	going to	watch TV.
			listen to the radio.
We			write a letter.
You	are		read a book.
They			work in the garden.
			eat fruit.
			pick vegetables.

"Going to" Future este un alt fel de exprimare a viitorului în limba engleză.

I'm going to play = mă voi juca, am de gând să mă joc, intenționez să mă joc.

"Going to" Future se formează din verbul to be la prezent, urmat de going to și de infinitivul scurt al verbului de conjugat:

SUBJECT + BE + GOING TO + VERB

Exemplu: I am going to eat.

Interogativul se formează prin inversiune între subiect și verbul to be:

Afirmativ: HE is going to read.

Interogativ: Is HE going to read?

Negativul se formează prin adăugarea negației not după verbul to be:

Afirmativ: They are going to play.

Negativ: They are not going to play.
They aren't going to play.

7. Put in am, are or is:

Examples:

I am going to wash.
She is going to eat.
We are going to leave.

1. He ... going to tell us a funny story.
2. I ... going to do sums.
3. She ... going to find the answer to the problem.
4. The alarm-clock ... going to ring.
5. They ... going to pick apples.

6. We ... going to help them.
7. You ... going to write an exercise.
8. The children ... going to pull out carrots.
9. Their parents ... going to plant trees.
10. The farmer ... going to pick pears.
11. I ... going to wait for her.
12. She ... going to spell her name.

8. Repeat the dialogue after your teacher and learn it:

1

Dan: Is Tom going to listen to the radio this evening?

Alice: No, he isn't.

Dan: What is he going to do?

Alice: He's going to watch TV.

Practise with:

On the School Plot

The pupils in our school like to grow fruit and vegetables. Behind the school there is a big orchard and a small vegetable garden. This is the school plot, where the children work hard to get good crops.

It is September and the holidays are over. The children are back to school again. Now they are all out on their school plot to pick the ripe fruit and vegetables.

There are many people in the orchard. The children and their teachers are picking the nice ripe apples and pears from the apple-trees and pear-trees. Then they are going to pick plums and nuts from the plum-trees and nut-trees.

Other children are working in the vegetable garden. They are picking red tomatoes and green cabbages. They are going to pull out carrots and onions next.

The crop is very good. The children are happy because they will eat fresh fruit and vegetables from their school plot.

travel ['trævl]	fast ['fɑ: t]	nothing ['nʌθɪŋ]
transport ['trænsɜ:t]	arm [ɑ:m]	bus ['bʌs]
		trolley-bus ['trɒlibʌs]
		another ['ə'nʌðə]
		comfortable ['kʌmfə-təbl]
[ei] place [pleis] train [trein]
plane [plein]

2. Listen to your teacher. Say up or down.

Examples:

Are you late?	Where are you running?
Up	Down

- Are you a pupil?
- Where do you live?
- Do you like English?
- Is your town big?
- Do you walk to school?
- Is the school near your house?
- What are you saying?
- Are you busy?
- How do you get to school?
- Where is your teacher?

3. Look at the pictures and read:

We travel by train or by car when we go on trips to the mountains.

We travel by plane when we go to the seaside.

Some people go to work by bus.

In Bucharest many people go to work by tube. The tube is fast and comfortable.

We usually go to school by tram.

Many children go to school by trolley-bus. Other children go to school on foot.

4. Complete these sentences:

1) Mary goes to school by...

2) Mother goes to work by...

3) Father goes to his factory by...

4) We usually travel to the mountains by...

5) They never go to the seaside by...

6) We go on trips by...

The toy-car is interesting, but the electric train is more interesting than the toy-car.

6. Make sentences.

Examples:

armchair — comfortable — chair

The armchair is more comfortable than the chair.

- 1) book — interesting — newspaper
- 2) blouse — beautiful — skirt
- 3) tube — comfortable — bus
- 4) the problem — important — the exercise
- 5) the dictionary — useful — the book

7. Repeat in chorus after your teacher (Books shut)

It's 'very interesting.	I 'usually 'walk.
It's 'very 'comfortable.	They 'travel by 'bus.
It's 'very im'portant.	The 'bus is 'faster.
It's 'very much 'faster.	We 'are in a 'hurry.
	We 'take the 'tube.

Travelling in Town and in the Country

- Teacher: Paula, how can we go from one place to another?
Paula: When we go from one town to another we can travel by train, by car or by plane.
We usually go to the mountains by train and to the seaside by plane. When I go on trips with my family I travel by car.
- Teacher: Is it faster to travel by train or by plane? Dan, what do you think?
Dan: I'm sure it is faster to travel by plane.
- Teacher: Is the plane more comfortable than the train?
Paula: Yes, it is.
- Dan: I think it's more interesting to travel by train. It takes a longer time, but you can see more things.
- Teacher: How can people get to their work?
Dan: They can get there by bus, by tram, by trolley-bus or by car.
- Paula: In Bucharest they can use the tube, too.
- Teacher: Is the tram faster than the bus?
Paula: No, it isn't. The bus is faster than the tram. It is a little more comfortable, too.
- Dan: I think the tube is the fastest and the most comfortable of all.
- Paula: That's true. You can see nothing when you travel by tube, but it takes a shorter time to get where you want. That's why many people like to travel by tube.

Exercises

The Four Seasons

Teacher: We're going to have a talk about the seasons and the weather today, children. Let's see who will give the best answer. Are you ready to start?

Pupils: Yes, we are.

Teacher: All right. What are the months of the year?

Victor: The months of the year are: January, February, March, April, May, June, July, August, September, October, November and December.

Teacher: What are the four seasons?

Victor: The four seasons are spring, summer, autumn and winter.

Teacher: Which season do you like best and why?

Victor: I like summer best. I think it's the most beautiful season of the year. The weather is hot and we have our summer holidays. Some children go to the mountains where they go on trips every day. Other children go to the seaside. There they swim in the Black Sea.

Dan: I like winter best. The weather is cold but there is a lot of snow and we can ski in the mountains or skate on the skating-rink. We have lots of fun during the winter holidays.

Teacher: What about autumn? Who likes autumn best?

George: I do. I think it's the most important season of the year.

Dan: Of course you do. We all know you like fruit and vegetables. You can eat a lot of fruit and vegetables in autumn. They are all ripe and good to eat, aren't they?

Teacher: Stop it, Dan. George is right. Autumn is beautiful and interesting: it is the season of good crops and of beautifully coloured leaves. What about spring? Does anybody like spring?

George: I know somebody in our class who likes spring, teacher. Paul does.

Paul: That's right. I like spring very much. And do you know why? The weather is warm, the trees and the grass are green and we pick lots of flowers in the fields.

Dan: Which is the best answer, teacher?

Teacher: Well, it's difficult to say. All your answers are very good, children. Now let's read the lesson.

Back From the Holidays

It is January and the winter holidays are over. The children are at school again. They all want to talk about their holidays.

Alice: Where were you, George? Were you in town?

George: No, I wasn't. I was in the country at my grandparents. I never spend my winter holidays at home. I always go to the country.

Alice: Was the weather fine there?

George: Yes, it was. There was a lot of snow, too. I could make a big snowman on New Year's Eve.

Alice: What about you, Victor? Where were you during the holidays? Were you in the country?

Victor: No, I wasn't. I was on a trip in the mountains. I usually spend my winter holidays in the mountains.

Alice: Could you ski there?

Victor: Yes, I could. There was a lot of snow in the mountains and I could ski every day.

Alice: And you, Doris? Where were you during the holidays?

Doris: I was in Braşov at my uncle's. I always spend my winter holidays there. There wasn't much snow in Braşov but I could skate on the skating-rink.

Alice: Can you skate, Doris?

Doris: Yes, I can, but I couldn't last year.

What about you? Where were you during the winter holidays?

Lunch

Yesterday was Sunday. Dan and Doris were busy in the kitchen all morning. Doris was the "cook" and Dan was her help.

At noon lunch was ready. Doris laid the table for lunch and then sat at table. Mother and father sat at table, too. Dan was the "waiter" now. He asked mother:

"May I take your order, madam? Would you like to begin with soup?"

"No, thank you. I don't want any soup. I'd like to try some steak", mother said. "And some potatoes and vegetables to go with it."

"And you, what would you like, sir?" the little "waiter" asked father.

"I'd like some steak, too, please."

"Would you like anything else, sir?"

"Some tomato salad, please."

"What about you, Doris? What are you going to have?"

"I'd like some soup first," Doris said. "And then a piece of steak, potatoes and some tomato salad."

So father and mother had some steak. Dan and Doris had soup first, and then steak. After that they all had cakes and icecreams.

"Yum! Yum!" Dan said.

"Was the food nice?" Doris asked.

"Yes, thank you", father said. "It was a lovely meal."

A. Read this :

Yesterday was Dan's birthday. He had a small birthday party. His friends arrived round six o'clock in the evening. They had some presents for Dan. The presents were in little or in big boxes. One box was very big. There was a dictionary in it. Another one was very long. It had a ruler in it.

Dan's sister had a big red box in her hands. Dan opened it quickly; there was another box in it. This one was blue in colour. He opened the second box and could see another box in it.

Everybody laughed when Dan opened the third box. There were four little yellow boxes in it. In the last one there was a piece of paper which said: "Go into the bedroom. Look in the wardrobe. You will see three suitcases there: a black one, a brown one and a green one. Your birthday present is in one of those."

Dan went into the bedroom. He opened the wardrobe and then the three suitcases. His present was in the last one. Dan was very happy; it was just what he wanted: a beautiful new football!

The Parts of the Body

It was Tuesday, the ninth of February. It was very cold. The snow was good. Doris and Dan were in the garden.

The two children began to make a snowman together. Then their friends came, too.

First they made a big snowball. It was the body and the legs together.

Then they made a small snowball. It was the head.

Then they put the head on the body.

"Have you got any sticks?" Peter asked.

"Yes, I have some," his friend Dan answered.

The two sticks were the snowman's arms.

"Now the face," Alice said. "Have you got any coal to make its eyes?" she asked.

"We haven't got any coal, but Dan has some coloured chalk for its eyes and mouth," Doris answered.

"And I've got a carrot for its nose," Peter said.

The snowman was ready. It was very pretty. The children liked it very much. They ran round and round the snowman and sang songs.

Then it began to snow and they ran into the house where they drank hot tea and told funny jokes.

Going Shopping

Every Saturday Mother goes shopping. Last Saturday she went shopping, too, as she needed a lot of things for my birthday party.

First she took a piece of paper and wrote down all the things she needed. Then she took two empty shopping bags, some money and left home in a hurry. She took a bus to get to the shops quickly.

The first shop she went to was the baker's where she bought some white bread. She didn't buy any rolls.

Outside the baker's shop mother met her friend Ann and said "Hello" to her. Ann told mother there were fresh fruit and vegetables at the greengrocer's, so mother went there too.

At the greengrocer's she bought some grapes and some tomatoes. She didn't buy any carrots or onions.

Then mother took out her piece of paper and read the other things she wanted to buy. She needed some meat, so she stopped at the butcher's and bought some.

Next, mother went to the dairy as she thought she would like to buy some butter, eggs and cheese.

After that mother went to the grocer's shop. The grocer sold her some sugar, jam and tea.

After all this shopping, the bags were full and mother couldn't carry them, so she gave them to me and I carried them home. We went back home by tram.

My Town

*It is Sunday, the 7th of April 1987. The children are on holiday.
Dan is visiting his cousin George. He wants to show him some pictures of his town.*

Dan: Let me show you some pictures of my town.

George: What's this?

Dan: This is the new industrial district. There are a lot of factories here.

George: Does anyone in your family work in one of these factories?

Dan: Yes, my father does. He works in the tractor factory. And there is somebody else in my family who works there. Let me remember. Oh, yes, one of my cousins does.

George: What about this picture? It shows something very modern. What is it?

Dan: It's the new community centre. It's big and modern indeed. It has a beautiful theatre and cinema hall, a large library and a meeting room.

George: Where do people go shopping?

Dan: This is the shopping street where most shops are. I often go shopping there with my mother and sister.

George: This picture shows a large park. Is there anything special for children here?

Dan: Yes, there is. There are some playgrounds and an open-air theatre.

George: These are beautiful pictures indeed. I'd like to come and visit your town some time.

Dan: Why not come during our next holidays?

George: Fine. I'd love to.

1. Two Patters

Dick's stick is thick.
Nick's stick is not as thick as Dick's stick.
Nick's stick is thin.

The fat black cat ran after the fat black rat, but the fat black rat ran away from the fat black cat.

thick [θɪk] = gros

rat [ræt] = șobolan

to run away ['rʌn ə'wei] = a o lua la fugă

2. Antonyms

Play this game in class:

The class is divided into two teams. A pupil from one team gives a word and a pupil in the other team must give its antonym, e.g. dirty — clean, come — leave, etc. If the pupil gives the correct antonym, his team has one point. The team with the highest number of points will win the game.

The Eighth of March

Yesterday was the 8th of March, the International Women's Day. George and Diana came home in a hurry as they wanted to do something special for their mother.

Diana went into the kitchen where she started to wash the dishes. While Diana was washing the dishes in the kitchen, George went into the garden. There he cut some flowers and then brought them into the house.

After Diana washed the dishes, she cleaned the table and began to make a special cake for her mother. While Diana was making the cake, George went into the dining-room and laid the table for dinner. He brought the plates and glasses from the kitchen and then put the flowers in a vase.

When everything was ready, George went into the kitchen to help Diana with the cake, but the cake was ready, too. The two children were very happy. They were talking happily when their mother and father arrived home. Mother was very pleased when she saw the flowers and the nice cake. She thanked her children and all the family sat at table. Father gave mother a beautiful blouse as a present for Women's Day. The children sang a song for their mother. They sang it beautifully. Mother was very pleased with them all.

Going to the Theatre

It's Sunday, the 13th of May. Dan and Doris have just done their homework. They are looking at a newspaper now as they want to see a play. They don't want to see a film.

"Have you seen this play?" asks Dan.

"Yes, I have."

"How about this comedy? Have you seen it yet?"

"No, I haven't, but the play has already started."

"What about 'A Lost Letter'? You like funny plays, don't you?"

"Yes, I do, and I haven't seen this play yet."

"Let's go and see it then. I've heard it's good."

Outside the theatre, Dan and Doris meet their friends Diana and Victor. They also want to see the play but they haven't got tickets. Diana asks Dan:

"Has the play started yet?"

"No, it hasn't started yet. Do you want to see it, too?"

"Yes, we'd love to, but we haven't bought tickets yet. What about you?"

"We've just bought two tickets but we'll wait for you".

"All right. Let's go and buy our tickets, Victor."

Reading, Speaking and Writing Exercises

A. Read this:

Toma's birthday is on June 29th. Two weeks ago, Toma wrote a letter to his aunt Martha. His mother came into his room while he was writing his letter.

"What are you doing, Toma?" she asked.

"I'm writing a letter to aunt Martha," Toma answered.

Toma's mother was very surprised because Toma never writes letters to anyone.

"Are you inviting her to your birthday party?" his mother asked.

"No, I'm not," Toma answered. "Aunt Martha never comes to my birthday parties."

"What have you written?" his mother asked. "Will you read me the letter?"

"All right", Toma said. "But I've only written two lines. I'll read them to you. Listen:

Dear Aunt Martha,

Thank you very much for your birthday present."

His mother said, "But Toma, Aunt Martha hasn't sent you a birthday present yet."

1. Nobody Will Believe Me

A bad fisherman never caught any fish. Everybody laughed at him. But one day he caught a big fish. He thought a little and then let the fish go back into the river.

"Why have you done this?" his friend asked him.

"Because nobody will believe that I have caught the fish. They will say I have bought it."

to believe [bi'li:v] = a crede had [bæd] = rău, prost fisherman ['fiʃmən] = pescar to catch, [kætʃ], caught, caught [kɔ:t] = a prinde fish [fiʃ], pl. fish [fiʃ] = pește
a little [ə'litl] = puțin
to let, let, let [let] = a lăsa

2. Do You Know Who I Am?

The man on the bridge asked the fisherman:

"How many fish have you caught?"

"I have just caught the twenty-fifth fish," was the answer.

"Do you know who I am?" asked the man. "I am the king here. So you must give me all the twenty-five fish you have caught."

"And do you know who I am?" asked the fisherman.

"No, I don't."

"I am the biggest liar here."

bridge [bridʒ] = pod
king [kiŋ] = rege
liar ['laɪə] = mincinos

The Danube Delta

It was the end of term. It was the last school day. Dan, Doris and their friends were happy. They were waiting for the bell to ring and for the summer holidays to begin.

The form teacher gave the children their reports and said goodbye.

"Have a good holiday!" the form teacher said. "You have all worked hard this year and you need a good rest. Goodbye, children. See you again next term."

Dan and Doris went home. They took their reports with them.

When the children arrived home, they gave their reports to Father. Father read them carefully.

"Hm," Father said. "Maths, ten, English, ten, Romanian, ten. Nice work, children. You have got very good marks this term. Now you can both have a nice holiday."

"What are we going to do during the holidays?" Dan asked.

"You'll go to the Danube Delta," Father said. "You'll go next week".

"And Dad, are we going along the canal?" Dan asked.

"You mean to the Danube — Black Sea Canal? Of course, you are." Father answered.

"And then by train from Constanta to Tulcea", added Doris.

"Oh, Dad! I'm sure we are going to see a lot of interesting things in the Danube Delta, aren't we?" Dan said.

"Oh, Dad! We're going to see a lot of interesting things there, aren't we?", Dan said.

"Of course you are," said Father. "The Danube Delta is a unique place."

"We've just learnt this at school, father," Dan said. "There are many kinds of fish, birds and plants in the Delta."

"Oh, Father. We'll swim in the Danube, eat fish and learn more about life in the Danube Delta. We're going to have a lovely holiday," Doris said.

2. Fruit and Vegetable Salad

Play this game in class:

Each pupil in the game gets a new name. His or her name will be one of the vegetables or fruits pupils know, for example: cabbage, tomato, apple, nut, etc.

Now you begin to make the salad. One pupil calls out his new name which is for example Cabbage, saying:

"There are some cabbages but there aren't any apples."

The pupil who has the name Apple must quickly call out:

"There are some apples, but there aren't any tomatoes."

Then each pupil must call out quickly when he hears his name. The pupil who does not answer quickly or can't remember the names of the other pupils is out of the game. No one must call out the name of a pupil who is out of the game.

You can play the same game using names of things in the class, clothes, animals etc.

to call out ['kɔ:l 'aʊt] = a striga
