MR. JOHN GREENEWALD JR.

FOIPA Request No.: 1351325-000
Subject: Trump Organization

Dear Mr. Greenewald:

This is in response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request.

Based on the information you provided, we conducted a search of the Central Records System, to include any Electronic Surveillance (ELSUR) records. We were unable to identify main file records responsive to the FOIA. If you have additional information pertaining to the subject that you believe was of investigative interest to the Bureau, please provide us the details and we will conduct an additional search.

It is unnecessary to adjudicate your request for a fee waiver as no responsive main files were located.

For your information, Congress excluded three discrete categories of law enforcement and national security records from the requirements of the FOIA. See 5 U.S. C. § 552(c) (2006 & Supp. IV (2010)). This response is limited to those records that are subject to the requirements of the FOIA. This is a standard notification that is given to all our requesters and should not be taken as an indication that excluded records do, or do not, exist.

For questions regarding our determinations, visit the www.fbi.gov/foia website under "Contact Us." The FOIPA Request Number listed above has been assigned to your request. Please use this number in all correspondence concerning your request. Your patience is appreciated.

You may file an appeal by writing to the Director, Office of Information Policy (OIP), United States Department of Justice, Suite 11050, 1425 New York Avenue, NW, Washington, D.C. 20530-0001, or you may submit an appeal through OIP's FOIAonline portal by creating an account on the following web site: <https://foiaonline.regulations.gov/foia/action/public/home>. Your appeal must be postmarked or electronically transmitted within ninety (90) days from the date of this letter in order to be considered timely. If you submit your appeal by mail, both the letter and the envelope should be clearly marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal." Please cite the FOIPA Request Number assigned to your request so that it may be easily identified.

You may seek dispute resolution services by contacting the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) at 877-684-6448, or by emailing ogis@nara.gov. Alternatively, you may contact the FBI's FOIA Public Liaison by emailing foipaquestions@ic.fbi.gov. If you submit your dispute resolution correspondence by email, the subject heading should clearly state "Dispute Resolution Services." Please also cite the FOIPA Request Number assigned to your request so that it may be easily identified.

Enclosed for your information is a copy of the FBI Fact Sheet.

FBI FACT SHEET

- The primary functions of the FBI are national security and law enforcement.
- The FBI does not keep a file on every citizen of the United States.
- The FBI was not established until 1908 and we have very few records prior to the 1920s.
- FBI files generally contain reports of FBI investigations of a wide range of matters, including counterterrorism, counter-intelligence, cyber crime, public corruption, civil rights, organized crime, white collar crime, major thefts, violent crime, and applicants.
- The FBI does not issue clearances or non-clearances for anyone other than its own personnel or persons having access to FBI facilities. Background investigations for security clearances are conducted by many different Government agencies. Persons who received a clearance while in the military or employed with some other government agency should contact that entity. Most government agencies have websites which are accessible on the internet which have their contact information.
- An identity history summary check or “rap sheet” is NOT the same as an “FBI file.” It is a listing of information taken from fingerprint cards and related documents submitted to the FBI in connection with arrests, federal employment, naturalization or military service. The subject of a “rap sheet” may obtain a copy by submitting a written request to FBI CJIS Division – Summary Request, 1000 Custer Hollow Road, Clarksburg, WV 26306. Along with a specific written request, the individual must submit a new full set of his/her fingerprints in order to locate the record, establish positive identification, and ensure that an individual’s records are not disseminated to an unauthorized person. The fingerprint submission must include the subject’s name, date and place of birth. There is a required fee of $18 for this service, which must be submitted by money order or certified check made payable to the Treasury of the United States. A credit card payment option is also available. Forms for this option and additional directions may be obtained by accessing the FBI Web site at www.fbi.gov/about-us/cjis/identity-history-summary-checks.
- The National Name Check Program (NNCP) conducts a search of the FBI’s Universal Index (UNI) to identify any information contained in FBI records that may be associated with an individual and provides the results of that search to a requesting federal, state or local agency. Names are searched in a multitude of combinations and phonetic spellings to ensure all records are located. The NNCP also searches for both “main” and “cross reference” files. A main file is an entry that carries the name corresponding to the subject of a file, while a cross reference is merely a mention of an individual contained in a file. The results from a search of this magnitude can result in several “hits” and “idents” on an individual. In each instance where UNI has identified a name variation or reference, information must be reviewed to determine if it is applicable to the individual in question.
- The Record/Information Dissemination Section (RIDS) searches for records and provides copies of FBI files responsive to Freedom of Information or Privacy Act (FOIPA) requests for information. RIDS provides responsive documents to requesters seeking “reasonably described information.” For a FOIPA search, the subject’s name, event, activity, or business is searched to determine whether there is an associated investigative file. This is called a “main file search” and differs from the NNCP search.

EXPLANATION OF EXEMPTIONS

SUBSECTIONS OF TITLE 5, UNITED STATES CODE, SECTION 552

- (b)(1) (A) specifically authorized under criteria established by an Executive order to be kept secret in the interest of national defense or foreign policy and (B) are in fact properly classified to such Executive order;
- (b)(2) related solely to the internal personnel rules and practices of an agency;
- (b)(3) specifically exempted from disclosure by statute (other than section 552b of this title), provided that such statute (A) requires that the matters be withheld from the public in such a manner as to leave no discretion on issue, or (B) establishes particular criteria for withholding or refers to particular types of matters to be withheld;
- (b)(4) trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a person and privileged or confidential;
- (b)(5) inter-agency or intra-agency memorandums or letters which would not be available by law to a party other than an agency in litigation with the agency;
- (b)(6) personnel and medical files and similar files the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy;
- (b)(7) records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes, but only to the extent that the production of such law enforcement records or information (A) could reasonably be expected to interfere with enforcement proceedings, (B) would deprive a person of a right to a fair trial or an impartial adjudication, (C) could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, (D) could reasonably be expected to disclose the identity of confidential source, including a State, local, or foreign agency or authority or any private institution which furnished information on a confidential basis, and, in the case of record or information compiled by a criminal law enforcement authority in the course of a criminal investigation, or by an agency conducting a lawful national security intelligence investigation, information furnished by a confidential source, (E) would disclose techniques and procedures for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or would disclose guidelines for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions if such disclosure could reasonably be expected to risk circumvention of the law, or (F) could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of any individual;
- (b)(8) contained in or related to examination, operating, or condition reports prepared by, on behalf of, or for the use of an agency responsible for the regulation or supervision of financial institutions; or
- (b)(9) geological and geophysical information and data, including maps, concerning wells.

SUBSECTIONS OF TITLE 5, UNITED STATES CODE, SECTION 552a

- (d)(5) information compiled in reasonable anticipation of a civil action proceeding;
- (j)(2) material reporting investigative efforts pertaining to the enforcement of criminal law including efforts to prevent, control, or reduce crime or apprehend criminals;
- (k)(1) information which is currently and properly classified pursuant to an Executive order in the interest of the national defense or foreign policy, for example, information involving intelligence sources or methods;
- (k)(2) investigatory material compiled for law enforcement purposes, other than criminal, which did not result in loss of a right, benefit or privilege under Federal programs, or which would identify a source who furnished information pursuant to a promise that his/her identity would be held in confidence;
- (k)(3) material maintained in connection with providing protective services to the President of the United States or any other individual pursuant to the authority of Title 18, United States Code, Section 3056;
- (k)(4) required by statute to be maintained and used solely as statistical records;
- (k)(5) investigatory material compiled solely for the purpose of determining suitability, eligibility, or qualifications for Federal civilian employment or for access to classified information, the disclosure of which would reveal the identity of the person who furnished information pursuant to a promise that his/her identity would be held in confidence;
- (k)(6) testing or examination material used to determine individual qualifications for appointment or promotion in Federal Government service the release of which would compromise the testing or examination process;
- (k)(7) material used to determine potential for promotion in the armed services, the disclosure of which would reveal the identity of the person who furnished the material pursuant to a promise that his/her identity would be held in confidence.

PICKING A WINNER IN N.Y.C.'S GREAT LAND RUSH OF '85

Part 2: Inside the $1B Coliseum deal

Today The Post provides in step-by-step view of the decision-making process in the city's biggest land deal ever.

By BARBARA ROSS

FROM the beginning, city and MTA officials expected a strong response to their request for proposals (RFP) on the Coliseum site.

Maralia Boyle, said that in the five years she has served as Real Estate Director for the MTA. "If I didn't get a call a day from someone interested in the site, it was a slow day."

The RFP was issued last February after more than a year of preparation. The deadline for submitting proposals was May 1.

During the interim, officials got numerous calls from developers with detailed questions about the RFP requirements. In March, they set up a meeting to handle the growing number of inquiries.

"The whole world came to this meeting. That's when we knew we were hot," said Abe Edlerman, special assistant to Mayor Koch.

The excitement really boiled over on May 1 when 25 proposals came in — one offering a purchase price that was more than double the appraised value of the property!

Mort Zuckerman, the Boston developer-publisher who assembled the winning package in the Coliseum land rush.

The next step in the process involved a review of the proposals by an eight-member committee.

There were four MTA representatives: Boyle, General Counsel Steven Polan, George Schoepfer, head of the Triborough Bridge and Tunnel Authority, and Margaret Boepple, director of community affairs.

The city's four members were Alderman City Planning Commission Chairman Herb Sturz, Jack Lust, special advisor to the mayor, and Steven Spinola, assistant of the Public Development Corp.

Boyle's staff took the first step, making sure that all the necessary documents had been submitted.

Two developers were immediately disqualified because they had not submitted $100,000 refundable deposits.

Then Sturz staff reviewed the plans to make sure they conformed with all zoning and design requirements.

Sturz aide Phil Schneider said most proposals had some problems which caused or corrected.

The plan submitted by Bruce Eichner had a more serious flaw: the commercial space was located on top of his residential floors, a no-no in urban zoning.

But, he added, the relatively minor problems with most of the projects soon became irrelevant when the selection committee decided on May 9 to narrow the field to the five top bidders.

New York Coliseum Land Co., a joint venture of Joseph and Robert Bernstein and Kumagai Gumi's top Japanese construction firm. They proposed to erect an 80-story designed by Swanke Hayden Connell.

Boston Properties-Salomon Brothers, Inc. Their twin towers of 57 and 72 floors would be decked out with a staggered array of greenhouses in a controversial design by Moshe Safdie.

The Trump Organization-H.K. Kahnow & Co., Inc. which submitted two proposals with the same purchase price.

One plan by Helmut Jahn called for a five-skinned octagonal tower with a spiraling terraced staircase effect (each step six stories high) on one side. It was dubbed the Busby Berkeley Building.

The other by Sil Attis was a 10-sided, 137-story tower, symmetrically situated like some kind of telescope on a Gothic-style wedding cake. It would have been the world's tallest building.

• Silverstein Properties, Amermbass Realty Co., Melvin Simon & Associates, Inc. Architects Skidmore, Owings & Merrill called for three traditional buildings — two 43 stories high and one of 63 stories.

The semifinalists had submitted bids ranging from $324 million to $477 million. The losers had only been willing to spend between $175 million and $295 million.

All the semifinalists had included office, retail and hotel space in varying dimensions. The only proposal with no residential space came from Boston Properties.

At this point, the committee interviewed each developer extensively.

Each was asked, among other things, whether they had firm commitments from tenants to occupy their retail and office space or from hotel chains to run that part of the operation.

"Eugene tells you that he has a commitment from a major tenant. [Mortimer] Zuckerman was the only one who brought the tenant to the table," said Boyle.

"It was a real coup," Biderman agreed.

Zuckerman, co-owner of Boston Properties, had a commitment from Phibro-Salomon Inc. to put its world headquarters in the building. The huge New York investment banking firm would occupy 1.5 million square feet of his office space and create about 100 jobs. According to Boyle, this made the Boston Properties proposal stand out among the rest.

"You know you can take that proposal to the bank," she said.

In ensuing weeks, the city and MTA staff met several times with community leaders to get their views.

The Coliseum property is somewhat unusual in that it is covered by three Community Planning Boards — numbers 7, 8 and 9 — which means triple protection or triple trouble, depending on your perspective.

Officials got the clear impression that community leaders liked the traditional look of the Silverstein complex best, but overall, their objections to the other proposals seemed less well defined.

Despite community support for Silverstein's building, officials agreed it was beginning to look like Trump and Silverstein were eliminated.

Attention focused on the two top bidders: Boston Properties, who offered $353 million for the site, and New York Coliseum Land Co. with $477 million.

In early June, Boyle said, "some feelers were put out to [Zuckerman-Salomon] to see if there was any movement in the purchase price."

"If they hadn't moved, we probably would have gone with New York Land," she added.

But on June 10, Zuckerman informed the MTA in writing that his bid would leap to $453.1 million. (To help pay for this added cost, he later adjusted his plan to include some luxury condominiums.)

Later that day, letters went out to the two top bidders giving them one last chance to raise the ante.

On D-Day, June 14, Zuckerman raised his bid a snicker to $453.1 million. New York Coliseum Land Co. didn't budge.

For the next month, the committee focused on the two proposals.

They weighed the merits of their design, how pedestrian traffic would flow, how the subway complex would be improved, etc.

Schneider said that while there were more design problems with the Bernstein proposal, they could be resolved.

The critical issues centered around: • Money. Was Kumagai Gumi's financial backing real, dependable, solid?

After all, the designated developer would have to put up a letter of credit for 10 percent of the price — about $45 million — at the closing. The city could tap that in the event of a default.

The answer from Japan was loud and clear: The enormously rich parent company would stand behind the development.

• Experience. This was the first "starting from scratch" development for the Bernsteins but one of many for Zuckerman.

The Bernsteins have successfully rehabilitated a string of old buildings here, including the old Korvette's store in Herald Square. Could they handle a development, this large and complex?

The issue was never really resolved because the next issue became paramount.

• The comparative economic benefits of each project to the city. Which would produce more revenue in the most reliable fashion?

Officials said the problem with the Bernstein proposal was two-fold:

One, it relied too much on residential and retail use, 34 and 25 percent, respectively, of 2.5 million square feet of space.

In contrast, about 73 percent of the 2.7 million square feet in Zuckerman's proposal would be office space.

Biderman said that from a revenue-raising standpoint, office space is better for the city.

Commercial buildings are assessed at a higher value and thus generate more property taxes and they are subject to other ancillary levies like the occupancy tax, which most condo owners don't pay.

They also tend to generate more higher paying jobs which means more in city income taxes.

The Bernsteins argued that their project's retail space would generate much more in sales taxes and would produce many more low-skill-level jobs desperately needed by the city's unemployed.

The problem with this argument, officials said, is that they were not convinced that the Bernsteins could really fill the retail space.

The brothers tried to reassure them, producing leases for as-yet-unoccupied space in their vertical Herald Center shopping complex.

On June 10, when it asked for one final bid, the MTA again asked the Bernsteins for an identification and/or commitment from an anchor tenant, which had been promised for the retail space.

"They gave us a lot of letters of interest, but none were as solid as the Salomon Brothers," Boyle recalled.

When they did have "solid" promises from prospective tenants, she added, they were for very small amounts of space.

On July 10, Biderman gave the Coliseum review committee the go-ahead — his analysis of the comparative tax revenue.

He estimated that over 15 years, the Zuckerman proposal would generate $305 million more in terms of real estate, real property transfer, retail and hotel sales, commercial rent, personal and corporate income taxes.

Critical to this analysis, Biderman said, were Phibro-Salomon's vow to rent 1.5 million square feet of space from Zuckerman for 15 years, at a cost of over $1.5 billion, and its plan to create 3500 new jobs.

He estimated that in terms of personal and corporate income tax, for example, the Bernstein project would produce $279.1 million to $322.5 million from Zuckerman's.

One reason for the big difference is that Biderman figured on only 2700-3000 new jobs from the Bernstein project compared to 5500 from Zuckerman's. He also assumed that the latter will be higher paying positions.

"He (Zuckerman) couldn't do it without Salomon and we wouldn't have committed ourselves to him without [a tenant] of Salomon's caliber," Biderman explained.

Although the Bernsteins are sharply critical of the assumptions in the Biderman analysis, Biderman said he had the accounting firm of Deloitte, Haskins & Sells, among others, review his assumptions and arithmetic, just to be sure.

They gave him the nod by phone.

The same day, one last obstacle was cleared: Mayor Koch and MTA Chairman Robert Kiley signed an agreement that the city would pay the MTA the $22 million difference between the two bids.

On July 11, Zuckerman got the good news. Finally. Officially. He had made it big in the Big Apple.

THE BIDDERS & THE BIDS

FIFTEEN proposals were submitted for the Coliseum site. Two were not taken seriously because they were not accompanied by a required refundable deposit of $100,000. The remaining 13 were:

New York Coliseum Land Co. (The Bernstein Bros./Kumogel Gum Co.)	$477 million
Boston Properties/Salomon Brothers, Inc.	$353 million
The Trump Organization/H.J. Kalikow & Co., Inc. (2 proposals)	$331 million
Silverstein Properties/Amermbass Realty Co./Melvin Simon & Assoc., Inc.	$324 million
Ackerman & Company	$295 million
Gilbreath-Ruffin Corp./The Letrak Org.	$272 million
Richlickner Joint Venture	$251 million
Hirschfeld Realty/Rapid America Corp./Drexel Burnham Lambert, Inc.	$250 million
Zeckendorf Co./World Wide Holdings Corp./The Taubman Co., Inc./Oxford Ventures, Inc./Arthur G. Cohen Properties, Inc./Joseph Gindl	$240 million
Metropolitan Prop. Corp./Columbus Towers Prop.	$235 million
Bechtel Invest., Inc./Park Tower Devel. Corp.	$225 million
Prudential Ins. Co. of Amer./Sterling Equities	$175 million

Dear [redacted] b6 -1 Per FBI
b7C -1 Per FBI

Please find enclosed the above-referenced request from Latvia for legal assistance in a foreign criminal matter. The United States is obligated to assist in such matters pursuant to the 1997 U.S.-Latvia Mutual Legal Assistance Treaty in Criminal Matters, as supplemented by the 2005 U.S.-Latvia Mutual Legal Assistance Protocol. Either because the assistance requested appears to be available without compulsory process, or because the use of compulsory measures would not appear to be successful, this office is transmitting the request to your office only, and asks that you ensure its prompt and efficient execution. Due to the nature of this ongoing criminal investigation, this request should be treated in a confidential manner.

The Facts

b6 Per CRM
b7C Per CRM

The facts of the case are set forth in detail in the enclosed request. In summary, the Corruption Prevention and Combating Bureau of the Republic of Latvia is investigating whether [redacted] a former Latvian government official, used his position to profit financially. From [redacted] held various government positions, including [redacted]. [redacted] During his time serving in public office [redacted] failed to disclose his role as a primary shareholder in four companies. [redacted]

[redacted]

According to the facts provided by Latvian authorities [redacted] was the legal owner of the companies, and took an active part in the direction and operation of the companies, including addressing financial and legal problems and undertaking development projects. [redacted] purposefully hid his capital shares and stock in the companies from public and law enforcement authorities because of the conflict of interest between his role as a public official and his private investments and business ventures. In the course of their investigation, Latvian authorities learned that in January 2011, [redacted]

b6 Per CRM
b7C Per CRM

traveled to the United States on vacation and attempted to interest foreign investors in several real estate projects. [redacted]

[redacted] Latvian investigators need to establish whether [redacted] admitted to his ownership of the company as [redacted] and whether he expressed his personal interest in developing and selling the property while acting as a government official.

The Request

In furtherance of their investigation, Latvian authorities seek an interview of [redacted] using the questions listed on pages 6-9 on the English translation of the request. Please note that Latvian authorities have informed our office that a written statement from [redacted] will be acceptable. Latvian law requires interviews to be recorded, transcribed, or handwritten with the interviewee's signature attesting that the statements are true and accurate. Please be advised that a FBI 302 Report is not admissible in Latvia's court of law.

Coordination with the OIA

Please provide this office with the name and telephone number of the case agent assigned to execute this request. That agent should analyze the request and notify us immediately if it contains insufficient information to permit execution. Similarly, if at any point you determine that appointment of an Assistant United States Attorney is necessary for complete execution of the request, please contact this office. Otherwise, the agent should proceed to execute the request at the earliest possible opportunity.

Please advise OIA immediately if there are special considerations of which you are aware that will result in either limited or delayed execution of the request or possible denial of the request. For example, if execution would result in harm to a U.S. investigation or prosecution or compromise a confidential source, assistance can be delayed or denied or conditions on use can be imposed. If such considerations arise with respect to this request, please contact me as soon as possible in order to discuss available options.

I will serve as the main point of contact for both your office and Latvia. Please contact me by e-mail at [redacted]@usdoj.gov or by telephone at [redacted] or [redacted]@usdoj.gov or by telephone at [redacted] if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Mary D. Rodriguez

Request for legal assistance in criminal proceedings No. [redacted]

To whom it may concern

Hereby we, the Corruption Prevention and Combating Bureau, express our respect to law enforcement authorities of the United States, and request to provide legal assistance in criminal proceedings No. [redacted]

b6 Per CRM
b7C Per CRM

The facts of the case:

Materials of the criminal proceedings contain data that [redacted] (personal identity number [redacted] in capacity of the state official holding a responsible position, is actually (in a covert manner) holding shares in companies [redacted] as well as shares in the [redacted] company [redacted] Relationship of [redacted] with the company [redacted] is also being verified.

Legally the following persons are owners of the above companies:

[Large redacted block]

b6 Per CRM
b7C Per CRM

From negotiations between [redacted] (personal identity number [redacted] personal identity number [redacted] personal identity number [redacted] obtained in materials of the criminal proceedings, it is clear that the said people are representing interests of [redacted] as the actual (covert) owner in the [redacted] companies. Also from the negotiations it appears that [redacted] has received dividends from [redacted] as well as has taken an active part in the management of the said company, in decision making, has addressed financial and legal problems of the companies, put forward and planned development directions of the companies.

b6 Per CRM
b7C Per CRM

For the person directing the proceedings there are reasonable grounds to believe that hiding of capital shares and stock owned by [redacted] behind other natural and legal persons has taken place for the purpose to hide assets (companies) owned by him from both the public and law enforcement authorities, since [redacted] as a public official, is aware that, officially, as owner of these companies, may not reveal himself, since from [redacted] has held various positions in government, including [redacted]

[redacted] While holding these positions,

[redacted] has likely, due to personal interest, and rapacious purposes, in breach of the limitations laid down for state official, adopted decisions, as well as has taken part in and has affected making of different decisions for the benefit of these companies, including [redacted] [redacted] which is prohibited to him under the law.

Information obtained in the criminal case have shown that [redacted] as well as [redacted] are aware of unlawful acts of [redacted] and they support his criminal activities, since they mutually address the question how to hide [redacted] as the actual (covert) owner and beneficiary of the company.

b6 Per CRM
b7C Per CRM

Material body of evidence in criminal proceedings give rise to the assumption that [redacted] [redacted] personal identity number [redacted] when holding positions of public officials - position of the [redacted]

[redacted]

[redacted] most likely has committed criminal offences as follows:

1. Criminal offence (Avoiding Submission of Declaration) prescribed pursuant to Section 219, Paragraph 2 of the Criminal Law, namely [redacted] as a public official, who holds a responsible position, with the participation in management of the companies [redacted]

[redacted] as the actual (covert) owner, gaining material benefit for himself, may have committed indication of intentionally false information in the public official's declaration, without specifying details of these companies owned by him and of the dividends obtained therefrom.

b6 Per CRM
b7C Per CRM

2. Criminal offence (Violation of Restrictions Imposed on a State Official) prescribed pursuant to Section 325, Paragraph 2 of the Criminal Law, namely [redacted] as a public official, who holds a responsible position, for the sake of personal interest and with avaricious intent while being a public official has participated in decision-making related to the companies [redacted]

[redacted] covertly owned by him, thus in violation of the restrictions imposed on a state official laid down in Section 11 of the Law "On Prevention of Conflict of Interest in Activities of Public Officials" [redacted] as a public official shall be prohibited, in the performance of responsibilities of public official, to prepare or to issue administrative acts, to carry out monitoring, control, investigation or punishment functions, to enter into contracts or to take other actions in which this public official, their relatives or business partners have personal or material interests).

3. Criminal offence (Using Official Position in Bad Faith), prescribed pursuant to Section 318, Paragraph 2 of the Criminal Law, namely [redacted] as a public official, by using official position in bad faith, for the sake of personal interest, with avaricious intent, by using his status as a public official, by taking decisions for the benefit of his covertly owned companies [redacted]

b6 Per CRM
b7C Per CRM

[redacted] has caused material damage to the state authority or management order.

4. Criminal offence (Unlawful Participation in Property Transactions), prescribed pursuant to Section 326, Paragraph 2 of the Criminal Law, namely [redacted] as a public official, for the sake of personal interest and with avaricious intent has entered into transactions with the companies [redacted]

[redacted] where he is the actual (covert) owner, i.e., has taken part in and contributed to property transactions prohibited to him in relation to his official position.

Right now [redacted] is in the procedural status of a person against whom criminal proceedings have been launched.

During pre-trial investigation, a legal assistance request has been received from the law enforcement authorities of the [redacted] under which, interrogation has been carried out of a witness [redacted] (identification number [redacted]). From testimony of [redacted] it derives that [redacted] while being a politician, has actively promoted and told about [redacted] to several current investors, including [redacted]. With [redacted] mediation, a relationship has been established with the [redacted]. [redacted] has testified that [redacted] has gone to America for business purposes relating to international relations between Latvia and America. [redacted] has tried to deal with marketing and popularization of the Latvian projects among foreign investors, due to which [redacted] had met many foreign investors, including [redacted]. [redacted] has pointed out in his testimonies that one of the appointments with [redacted] where [redacted] participated, probably might take place in January 2011.

Thus, upon assessment of testimonies by [redacted] and the materials of the criminal proceedings, for investigator there is reason to believe that [redacted] as personally and financially interested party in 2011 (perhaps in January) has travelled to the United States, where he has met [redacted] with a view to attract [redacted] as investor for real estate projects [redacted]. The said real estate projects in the Republic of Latvia are planned to be implemented by the companies incorporated in the [redacted] including [redacted] and [redacted] is actively engaged in the implementation of these projects.

b6 Per CRM
b7C Per CRM

In view of the above, in the criminal proceedings there is the need to obtain additional evidence confirming relationship of [redacted] with the companies from the [redacted] and Latvia, whereby, procedural activities must be carried out in the United States.

On 6/21/96 the following investigation was conducted by SA [REDACTED]

SA [REDACTED] generated a Nexis/Lexis search from the NYO operations center referencing the subjects in this investigation. The results of the search were reviewed during the period 6/21/96 and 6/24/96 with the below listed results.

A Newsday article dated 3/28/93 discussing various security measures in the wake of the World Trade Center bombing identified MATTHEW CALAMARI as the TRUMP TOWERS SECURITY DIRECTOR.

A Newsday article dated 2/14/94 discusses the ongoing CHUCK JONES trial and jury deliberations. The article indicates that TRUMP was angry over nude photographs JONES had of MARLA MAPLES which JONES has stated are missing. It also identifies MATTHEW CALAMARI as VICE PRESIDENT OF CORPORATE SECURITY for the TRUMP ORGANIZATION and indicates that he testified that he got JONES to voluntarily consent to a search of his Manhattan office after he showed him video tapes of a hidden camera in MAPLES' apartment. The article further indicates that DOMENIC PEZZO, the Director of Security at Trump Plaza, sent a messenger to 56th. street and 5th ave where contact was made with police officers BRIAN HIGGINS and ROBERT GIANETTA who responded to PEZZO's office. They reportedly were at the office for one half hour when PEZZO received a telephone call from CALAMARI who told him that JONES had a gun in the safe. The officers then responded to JONES' office. This same article indicates that JONES testified that MAPLES had brought singer MICHAEL BOLTEN back to her room following TRUMPS departure from a west coast trip.

A San Francisco Chronicle article dated 2/21/94 identified MATTHEW CALAMARI as DONALD TRUMP's chief bodyguard.

A Chicago Tribune article dated 10/2/94 which discusses that New York Plaza Hotel identifies DOMENIC PEZZO as the Executive Director of Security at the hotel.

A New York Daily News article dated 12/8/95 discusses a lawsuit filed by the wife of the former Superintendent at the Trump Towers, ROBERT BAJRUSHI, alleging that she was falsely imprisoned by MATTHEW CALAMARI and DOMENIC PEZZO when she went to retrieve her husbands personal belongings.

A New York Newsday article dated 1/13/96 discussed a lawsuit filed by CHUCK JONES against talk show host GERALDO RIVERA alleging that he violated a contract agreement with respect to JONES and his story regarding the TRUMP's. It indicates that JONES agreed to appear in a segment called CELEBRITY NEWS where he was to discuss matters concerning the TRUMP's, to include identifying DONALD TRUMP as a adulterer and MARLA MAPLES as a homewrecker. The article states that JONES filed suit when he learned that RIVERA featured the segment in the presence of the TRUMP's in February of 1995, which he argues is a violation of a contractual agreement.

A Boston Herald article dated 5/15/96 discusses the arrest of JONES on 10/15/95 for faxing nude photographs of MAPLES to the Plaza Hotel.

A Newsday article dated 5/15/96 indicates that JONES was sentenced to one and one half to four and one half years in prison. The article also identifies ANTHONY MOROSCO as JONES' attorney.

After several days of investigating the problems which the telephone lines at the Trump Organization were experiencing, he determined that the problem was the result of an internal line malfunction. One of the trunk lines on telephone number (212) 832-2000 was crossed with another line which then caused the ongoing problem. The matter has been remedied and the phone lines at the Trump Organization are now back to normal.

Security, THE TRUMP ORGANIZATION, 725 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York, telephone number [redacted] was advised of the identity of the interviewing Agent and the purpose of the interview. He provided the following information:

b6 -5
b7C -5

Also present during interview was [redacted]
[redacted] THE TRUMP ORGANIZATION. Both parties
[redacted] DONALD TRUMP, President, TRUMP ORGANIZATION.

b6 -5
b7C -5

[redacted] advises that approximately one and a half to two years ago, THE TRUMP ORGANIZATION began receiving telephone calls from a woman who identified herself as [redacted]. These calls mostly came after 5:00 pm and involved [redacted] asking to speak to DONALD TRUMP. The calls were non-threatening in nature and reached a point where they were annoying and harassing in nature to the receptionist who would answer the telephone.

b6 -2,-5
b7C -2,-5

During the next year and a half or so, the calls would continue on a steady basis from [redacted]. They knew she was from Chicago, and even had a telephone number where she could be contacted. At various times, [redacted] would call and ask to speak to [redacted] or [redacted] or TRUMP himself. As the calls continued, she seemed less and less interested in speaking to TRUMP, as she would mostly ask for [redacted] or [redacted] when she called.

b6 -2,-5

In January of 1991, [redacted] decided that these annoying calls had continued much too long. He determined [redacted] place of employment in Chicago, and called her immediate supervisor, [redacted] and advised her of the telephone calls being made by [redacted]. As a result of that telephone conversation, [redacted] was fired from her job as a receptionist. Shortly after she was fired, [redacted] recalled receiving a telephone call from her in which she asked him if he was happy now that she was fired.

Several weeks ago, the telephone calls from [REDACTED] began to intensify. She would call several times a day and annoy and harass the various receptionists and secretaries who would answer the telephones. As a result of this [REDACTED] decided to call the New York City Police Department regarding this problem. He spoke to a Detective [REDACTED] at the Midtown North Precinct, telephone number [REDACTED] and shortly thereafter, [REDACTED] contacted [REDACTED] and also told her to cease and desist her telephone calls. Shortly after that, the telephone calls continued by [REDACTED] and she also added [REDACTED] to her list of people to call.

b7C -2,-5,-6

Beginning June 4, 1991, the telephone calls from [REDACTED] intensified to a point that there were over one hundred of them received per day at the business telephone number. The number [REDACTED] always called in on is [REDACTED]. These telephone calls beginning June 4, 1991, were so numerous, that at times all of the lines on THE TRUMP ORGANIZATION telephones were tied up. [REDACTED] received reports from various people who were trying to call into THE TRUMP ORGANIZATION during that time, but they would receive nothing but a busy signal for hours at a time. [REDACTED] reports that when she would call during this time frame, she would normally identify herself as either [REDACTED] or [REDACTED]. In between the conversational telephone calls were the many aforementioned hang up telephone calls. Almost all the employees at THE TRUMP ORGANIZATION who answered the telephone were familiar with the sound of the voice of [REDACTED].

b6 -2,-5
b7C -2,-5

On June 7, 1991, [REDACTED] called THE TRUMP ORGANIZATION and engaged in a conversation with [REDACTED]. She advised him that she was presently across the street from the TRUMP TOWER, and was coming to see him. [REDACTED] asked her several questions and determined that in fact, she was not across the street, and later she admitted that she was lying to him, that she was presently in Chicago. This telephone call was tape-recorded by [REDACTED].

b6 -2,-5
b7C -2,-5

Another secondary telephone call was received by [REDACTED] and it was also from [REDACTED]. Both telephone calls were recorded so as to free up some of the regular business lines at the switchboard area of THE TRUMP ORGANIZATION. [REDACTED] would have colleagues of his call her home telephone number while he was on the telephone with her. When his colleagues would do this, they reported to him that the telephone rang with no answer. The telephone number they called was [REDACTED] the number that [REDACTED] had given them advising that it was hers.

On other occasions, during the middle of a telephone call, [REDACTED] would instruct his colleague to call that same number. The number would also ring, with no one answering it. That led [REDACTED] to believe that she was not necessarily calling from her house, but perhaps from a pay telephone at some other location.

[REDACTED] states that at no time was there ever an operator involved with any of the calls that [REDACTED] placed to THE TRUMP ORGANIZATION. None of the calls were made by her collect, nor did they appear to be from a pay telephone. He never heard coins dropping in a pay telephone, nor did he hear an operator interrupt for further payment. [REDACTED] states that [REDACTED] referred to the fact that she is at a pay telephone and she uses a calling card when she makes these long distance telephone calls.

b7C -2,-5

On June 7, 1991, during approximately twenty minutes worth of telephone conversations between [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] the switchboard did not receive any hang up telephone calls. [REDACTED] believes that this is because he kept [REDACTED] on the line and she was unable to place any additional telephone calls to tie up their main telephone lines.

Freeholders seek probe of Taj permit

State restrictions eased to allow employee parking lot opening

By KATHLEEN CANNON
Staff Writer

ATLANTIC CITY — The Atlantic County freeholders have asked for an investigation into whether the Trump organization somehow skirted the requirements for traffic improvements in the area around its 1,300-spot employee parking lot on Huron Avenue.

The officials say they are suspicious because state conditions put on the development of the lot, built to accommodate Taj Mahal Casino Resort employees, were recently downgraded to, in essence, ease the way for the lot's opening.

Donald Trump's newest hotel casino is due to open its doors April 5. The Casino Control Commission will hold a hearing for its final licensure today.

The freeholders, in a resolution prepared Wednesday, asked the commissioners to investigate the circumstances surrounding the parking-lot permitting that "appear to be extremely accommodating to the Trump Project while abysmally ignorant of the concerns to the residents of Brigantine Island," according to a letter by Board Chairman John F. Gaffney and Vice Chairman Andrew A. Solari.

One of the conditions attached to the original state permit allowing the parking lot to be built calls for the construction of traffic improvements such as extra turning lanes and additional signals at the Route 30/Huron Avenue/Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Boulevard intersection. The project is intended to allow for smoother traffic flow into the lot and onto Huron Avenue leading into Brigantine.

The original permit issued in December called for the improvements to be built before the parking lot could be used. But according to the permit modifications, outlined in a March 14 letter from the Division of Coastal Resources of the state Department of Environmental Protection, the parking lot can be opened before the improvements are constructed.

This has angered some Brigantine residents, including Solari. They complain that without the improvements, the additional traffic generated by the new parking lot will cause even more congestion on the Atlantic City roads leading to the lone access onto their island.

Solari asked the freeholder board Tuesday to call for the investigation.

"There's enough questions that somebody should be looking into any shenanigans and what looks like a deal between the DEP and Trump," Solari said. "Somebody's got to make DEP accountable. The DEP can't get away with it."

"It's almost like Trump wrote

- a) Provide two southbound through lanes on Huron Avenue.
- b) Modify the directional islands on the south side of Route 30 to provide for enough width so that MCI buses traveling side by side can negotiate the move from Route 87 to Illinois Avenue without encroaching on the adjacent lane.
- c) Provide the proper turning radius (50 foot) to accommodate MCI buses turning from the westbound Route 30 jughandle onto Huron Avenue shoulder lane without encroaching upon the median lane.
- d) Provide two lanes from southbound Huron Avenue onto westbound Route 30.
- e) Create a third lane, 430 feet in length, for southbound Huron Avenue to allow the move to Route 30 westbound to operate independently of the remainder of southbound Huron Avenue.
- f) Provide a free flowing right turn from eastbound Route 30 to southbound Illinois Avenue. A third lane must be introduced on southbound Illinois Avenue to accommodate the right turn move from Route 30. The additional lane will necessitate the removal of on street parking. The applicant must secure approval from the City or provide the additional lane while maintaining the parking.
- g) Design and install demand actuated signal timing for the Route 30 Huron Avenue/Illinois Avenue intersection.
- h) Develop and implement a revised bus shuttle circulation plan as permitted by ACTA, to improve the operation of the Route 30/Huron Avenue/Illinois Avenue intersection.
4. In order to assure that this site is used for no more than two years, the applicant shall file quarterly reports with the DEP during the two year term indicating the status of its efforts to lease or purchase an appropriate off-island site; provided that if the applicant is unable to obtain such a site within one year after the issuance of this CAFRA permit, then DEP may identify an appropriate site.
5. No other casinos are permitted to locate parking on the site. The applicant shall not use the site for any purpose other than employee intercept parking.

6. The Applicant shall be required to obtain all required approvals and abide by all appropriate operating conditions placed upon its occupancy by Atlantic City, ACTA, DEP, the New Jersey Department of Transportation, and any other governmental agencies having jurisdiction, and to make all necessary and specified site improvements prior to its occupancy of the site. All NJDOT, ACTA and Atlantic City permit approvals must be obtained for the vehicular shuttle bus circulation plan, and the intersection design and improvements must be implemented prior to operation of the intercept facility.
7. In order to insure compliance with the terms and conditions of this CAFRA permit, including vacating the site at the termination of this permit, the applicant shall be required to post a $6 million surety bond for the benefit of DEP.
6. Since the applicant's CAFRA permit for casino occupancy of Taj Mahal contains requirements with respect to employee intercept parking, and this CAFRA permit for temporary parking is being relied upon in satisfaction of some of those terms, any failure to comply with the terms of this CAFRA permit shall be grounds for revocation of the CAFRA permit for casino occupancy.
9. The applicant must secure a landfill disruption permit from the Division of Solid Waste Management.

During construction

10. Secure an approved soil conservation and erosion sediment control plan from the Cape Atlantic Soil Conservation District.
11. Provide through this Division the following information which will accompany this decision:
 - a) The applicant must plan, implement and maintain a traffic management program to reduce Vehicle Miles Traveled (VMT) to and from this project. The plan for this program is to be developed and submitted to NJDEP for review and approval within 90 days of the date of permit issuance. The plan shall address, but not be limited to, the elements listed in Attachment 1. Performance goals shall be set, and annual progress reports of the status of planning, implementation, and maintenance of all VMT management shall be submitted to NJDEP.
 - b) Resubmission of the carbon monoxide modeling for affected intersections using the EPA-approved CALINE 3.

RE: Notification of Appeal Settlement
Taj Mahal Interim Employee Parking Lot
CAFRA permit 89-1127-5
Huron Avenue, Atlantic City

Dear :

I write to inform you of this Division's minor modification of the above issued CAFRA permit. This modification will settle an appeal filed by the Trump Taj Mahal Associates, Limited Partnership.

Since you or your agency had participated at the CAFRA public hearing held on August 21, 1989 or submitted written comments on the original application, I wanted to be sure you were made aware of this modification described in the enclosed letter.

If you wish to appeal the terms of this modification, a written response clearly explaining the basis of your contention must be filed with the Commissioner, Department of Environmental Protection within ten (10) days of your receipt of this notice.

Dear Madam Chairman:

We believe it is imperative to bring to your attention a matter dealing with the Trump Taj Mahal. As you will note from the attached resolution, the Board of Freeholders on Tuesday, March 27, passed a resolution calling for an appeal of the Trump's employee parking lot modifications and a subsequent investigation by an appropriate agency into some apparent inconsistencies or irregularities regarding the construction and permitting of this parking lot.

Both Freeholder [Redacted] and I are cognizant of the impact of any delays on the opening of the Trump Taj Mahal Casino, but we must weigh those considerations against the fact that this temporary parking lot may create severe hardships on the entire population of the City of Brigantine.

b7C -3

As we are sure you are aware, the traffic congestion in the Huron Avenue Marina Corridor can literally choke off the Island residents from the rest of Atlantic County. It is for these reasons that we would request the Casino Control Commission inquire and investigate the manner in which the Taj's temporary employee parking lot was permitted and subsequently modified to what appears to be extremely accommodating to the Trump Project while abysmally ignorant of the concerns of the residents of Brigantine Island.

We and the residents of Brigantine Island are anxiously awaiting your reply.

Sincerely,

RE: Minor Modification and Settlement of Appeal
CAFRA Permit #89-1127-5
Interim Employee Park Lot (Taj Mahal)
Huron Avenue
Atlantic City, Atlantic County

Dear [Redacted]

Based upon a series of written proposals to this Division dating from January 22, 1990 in which you, on behalf of Trump Taj Mahal, applied to modify CAFRA permit 89-1127-5, and the Division receipt of an appeal also filed by the Trump Organization dated December 28, 1989, I have decided to now issue a minor modification to the original permit and simultaneously settle the pending appeal pursuant to the Coastal Permit Program Regulations (N.J.A.C. 7:7-5.4). Procedurally, notice of this settlement will be published within the DEP Bulletin and this revised language will be distributed to any interested third party who commented on the original application. Any aggrieved party will have ten days from publication in the DEP Bulletin to appeal approval of this modification to DEP Commissioner Yaskin.

I have concluded that the modifications approved in this letter are consistent with the intent of the original decision to insure that the site is used for parking only for a short interim period. CAFRA Permit 89-1127-5 is now modified as described below.

CONDITION NUMBER ONE

Original Language

"The applicant shall not be permitted to enter into a lease for employee intercept parking on the permitted site for more than two years from the date of the issuance of this CAFRA permit."

Taj Mahal Interim Employee Parking Lot

b6 -3
b7C -3

Modified Language

This condition is modified as follows: "Use of the site is authorized for two years from the date of occupancy provided that, prior to occupancy, the applicant provides the Division with a copy of an executed lease with the City of Atlantic City which contains the following language;

"The City and the tenant acknowledge that the use of the property as a parking lot is approved for a period of two years and that any use beyond this time can occur only with the explicit prior approval of the DEP. Furthermore, the City and the tenant acknowledge that the DEP has expressed its strong desire to see this parking located on an off-island intercept site within two years."

CONDITION NUMBER TWO

Original Language

"A plan to enforce the following routing schedule recommended by NJDOT must be submitted for review and approval from the Division: Trump Organization employees inbound on Route 30 must access the intercept site by taking eastbound Route 30 to northbound South Carolina Boulevard to Brigantine Boulevard, to North Carolina Avenue, northbound to North Carolina Avenue to site."

Modified Language

This condition remains unchanged.

CONDITION NUMBER THREE

Original Language

"Interim use of this site for an employee, intercept lot is conditional upon the applicant making the following improvements to the Huron Avenue (Route 87), Illinois Avenue and Route 30 intersection items A-H. Final approval of all roadway improvements by NJDOT must be received by the Division to satisfy this condition."

Items A to G pertain to specific upgrades in routing and expansion of capacity levels.

Taj Mahal Interim Employee Parking Lot

b6 -3
b7C -3

Item H states "develop and implement a revised bus shuttle circulation plan as permitted by ACTA and to improve the operation of the Route 30/Huron Avenue/Illinois Avenue intersection."

Modified Language

The condition is modified to read:

"The applicant is permitted to use the interim parking lot, but must immediately commence construction of all NJDOT required road improvements (as listed below) in a phased timeframe acceptable to NJDOT."

There is no change in items A through G.

h) Develop and implement a revised bus shuttle circulation plan as permitted by ACTA.

CONDITION NUMBER FOUR

Original Language

"In order to assure that this site is used for no more than two years, the applicant shall file quarterly reports with the DEP during the two year term indicating the status of its priority to lease or purchase an appropriate off-island site provided that if the applicant is unable to obtain such a site within one year after the issuance of this CAFRA permit, then DEP may identify an appropriate site."

Modified Language

This condition is modified to read:

"In order to assure that this site is used for no more than two years, the applicant shall file quarterly reports with the DEP during the two year period indicating the status of its efforts to lease or purchase an off island site that would be consistent with the coastal policies."

Taj Mahal Interim Employee Parking Lot

b6 -3
b7C -3

CONDITION NUMBER FIVE

Original Language

"No other casinos are permitted to locate parking on the site. The applicant shall not use the site for any purpose other than employee intercept parking."

Modified Language

This condition is deleted.

CONDITION NUMBER SIX

Original Language

"The Applicant shall be required to obtain all required to obtain all required approvals and abide by all appropriate operating conditions placed upon its occupancy by Atlantic City, ACTA, DEP, the New Jersey Department of Transportation, and any other governmental agencies having jurisdiction, and to make all necessary and specified site improvements prior to its occupancy of the site. All NJDOT, ACTA and Atlantic City permit approvals must be obtained for the vehicular shuttle bus circulation plan, and the intersection design and improvements must be implemented prior to operation of the intercept facility."

Modified Language

This condition remains unchanged except for the concluding sentence, which is modified to read: "All NJDOT, ACTA and Atlantic City permit approvals must be obtained for the vehicular shuttle bus circulation plan and the intersection design and improvements must be implemented in a schedule approved by those agencies."

CONDITION NUMBER SEVEN

Original Language

"In order to insure compliance with the terms and conditions of this CAFRA permit, including vacating the site at the termination of this permit, the applicant shall be required to post a $6 million surety bond for the benefit of DEP."

Taj Mahal Interim Employee Parking Lot

b6 -3
b7C -3

Modified Language

This condition is modified to read:

"In the event the City lease language specified in Condition One is not formally adopted by the City and applicant prior to occupancy, the applicant will then be required to post a $6 million dollar security bond to ensure timely vacancy of the site to the Division's satisfaction."

X CONDITION NUMBER EIGHT

Original Language

"Since the applicant's CAFRA permit for casino occupancy of Taj Mahal contains requirements with respect to employee intercept parking, and this CAFRA permit for temporary parking is being relied upon in satisfaction of some of those terms, any failure to comply with the terms of this CAFRA permit shall be grounds for revocation of the CAFRA permit for casino occupancy."

Modified Language

This condition is deleted.

CONDITION NUMBER NINE

Original Language

"The applicant must secure a landfill disruption permit from the Division of Solid Waste Management."

Modified Language

This condition has been met as the landfill disruption permit has been received by the applicant.

CONDITION NUMBER TEN

Original Language

"Secure an approved soil conservation and erosion sediment control plan from the Cape Atlantic Soil Conservation District."

Modified Language

This condition remains unchanged.

CONDITION NUMBER ELEVEN

Original Language

This condition requested specific transportation and air quality related information.

Modified Language

This condition is considered met since the information was previously provided.

Construction of this project may commence as soon as the Division receives a written confirmation from the Trump Organization accepting the terms of this permit with conditions as modified by this letter and withdrawing their appeal of the permit. If you or anyone else is aggrieved by this decision an appeal may be filed to the Commissioner of the Department of Environmental Protection within 10 days of the publication of this decision in the DEP Bulletin or in a newspaper whose circulation includes the municipality in which the project is located.

RE: CAFRA PERMIT 89-1127-5

WHEREAS, the Department of Environmental Protection issued CAFRA Permit 89-1127-5 to Trump Taj Mahal Associates on December 20, 1989, for the construction of a 1,332 space interim parking lot adjacent to Huron Avenue in Atlantic City, New Jersey, subject to conditions that would have helped traffic flow in the Brigantine-Atlantic City area by requiring road improvements to Huron Avenue, thus significantly contributing to the health and safety of the residents of Brigantine Island; and

WHEREAS, the original permit required the aforesaid road improvements to be completed prior to commencement of construction of said interim parking lot; and

WHEREAS, Trump Taj Mahal Associates evidently appealed the terms of said permit, with no notice of said appeal having been sent to any party in interest who appeared at the public hearing held on the application on August 21, 1989; and

WHEREAS, the modifications made to the permit allow the use of the interim parking lot prior to any road upgrades; and

WHEREAS, as a result of the granting of permission to use said interim lot prior to the upgrading of roads, not only will prior problems relating to traffic flow and quantity not be alleviated, but

WHEREAS, it would appear that no public entities were given the opportunity to oppose the appeal of Trump Taj Mahal Associates.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE BOARD OF CHOSEN FREEHOLDERS OF ATLANTIC COUNTY that this Board urges the Executive Branch of the Atlantic County Government to file a formal appeal of the modification of CAFRA Permit 89-1127-5.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this Board urges an investigation of the modification of the CAFRA permit of December 20, 1989, be conducted by any and all agencies, departments, boards, and investigative bodies (including the Attorney General's Office) having any jurisdiction over the actions of the Department of Environmental Protection, and, if necessary, that the New Jersey Legislature conduct relevant hearings.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that copies of this Resolution be sent to Governor James Florio, State Senator William Gormley, State Assemblywoman Dolores Cooper, State Assemblyman Fred Scerni, the Casino Control Commission, the governing bodies of the City of Brigantine and the City of Atlantic City; Director of CAFRA & Commissioner of DEP.

Re: Huron Avenue Parking Lot

b6 -3
b7C -3

Dear [Redacted]

I just received a call from [Redacted] concerning the CAFRA permit for the Huron Avenue parking lot. I understand from [Redacted] that the final draft permit conditions were distributed to the agencies who opposed the project at the CAFRA hearing. [Redacted] informed me that the Atlantic County Freeholders do not agree with the new draft conditions and have "appealed" the decision.

b6 -3
b7C -3

[Redacted] has not seen the appeal and does not know the details, but until this is resolved, he does not think we will be able to occupy the lot. He also stated that we are in violation, since we have constructed the lot without the permit.

Please call me after you have had a chance to review this.

The relationship between Westchester District Attorney Jeanine Pirro and her attorney husband, Al, is mutually beneficial. Those benefits were detailed in the Jan. 15 filing of Mrs. Pirro's campaign committee.

It showed contributions and expenses for the campaign's Oct. 26 masquerade ball at the Seven Springs mansion in North Castle, which is owned by the Trump Organization. Mr. Pirro represents Trump in his bid to build a golf course there and several of Pirro's other clients bought tickets to the affair.

The campaign also paid Trump just $250 to rent the sprawling mansion for the evening. State regulations require the disclosure of any gifts made to a campaign if a candidate doesn't pay fair-market value for the service.

Mrs. Pirro's spokeswoman Maureen Connelly said $250 was a fair price for "an unoccupied house." She said Seven Springs was in such sorry shape that the campaign had to spend several thousand dollars to clean it up and install temporary lighting. Those expenses were reported.

So that means that Mrs. Pirro's campaign made improvements on property owned by Mr. Pirro's client. The Trump camp was pleased.

"We are very grateful to them for getting Seven Springs in good condition," said Trump spokeswoman Norma Foerderer. "We got the strong end of that deal."

On 4/21/82 SA [redacted] contacted Commissioner Gliedman by telephone and advised him on the contents in referenced memo. GLIEDMAN advised that he received a telephone call at home at approximately 7:00 am on 4/20/82 threatening his life over a tax abatement issue concerning DONALD TRUMP. The caller identified himself as [redacted] (LNU) AND became very abusive and profane regarding GLIEDMAN's inability to approve Mr. TRUMP's request for a tax abatement.. GLIEDMAN contacted BOB XUINN, Police Commissioner (745-8400) who assigned [redacted] CO OF the Intelligence Unit and [redacted] to the case.

On 4/22/82 SA [redacted] met with GLIEDMAN, [redacted] and [redacted] and relayed to them the contents of referenced memo. [redacted] stated that police protection was being given to GLIEDMAN and that his office was conducting a full investigation to determine the identity of the caller.

MEMORANDUM & ORDER

KEVIN THOMAS DUFFY, District Judge.

*1 This case, hoary with age, has recently been transferred to my docket. In the files, I discovered cross-motions for summary judgment and for leave to amend the answer. In addition, defendants' move to strike plaintiff's jury demand. The summary judgment motions are in all respects denied as is the motion to amend the answer and to strike the jury demand. Questions of fact abound prohibiting the granting of summary judgment. See generally Fed.R.Civ.P. 56. The motion to amend the answer in this eleven year old case, if granted, would just start another round of fruitless discovery. There must be an end to all litigation; even Jarndyce v. Jarndyce ground down to a conclusion.

FACTS [FN1]

Sometime in late 1979 or early 1980, Trump-Equitable hired defendant William Kaszycki and his company, Kaszycki & Sons Contractors, Inc. (collectively the "Kaszycki Defendants"), to demolish the Bonwit Teller building in Manhattan. Diduck, 774 F.Supp. at 805. The building was demolished to make way for Trump Tower. Id. Kaszycki had never performed a total demolition before undertaking the Bonwit Teller job, id., and apparently formed the Kaszycki Corporation for this sole purpose. (Transcript of Trial (hereinafter "Tr.") at 594). Thereafter, the Kaszycki Corporation did not do any other total demolition jobs. (Tr. at 594).

Pursuant to an agreement that was signed on January 29, 1980, the Kaszycki Corporation was responsible for the labor, equipment and supplies required to demolish the building. Diduck, 774 F.Supp. at 805. The agreement also provided that the Kaszycki Corporation was responsible for the hiring, firing and supervision of its employees engaged in the demolition job. (Trump Defendants 3(g) Statement, P 2). The Kaszycki Corporation was to be paid $775,000 for this work. Diduck, 774 F.Supp. at 805.

The Kaszycki Corporation employed Polish workers who were paid "off-the-books". Id. No records were kept, no taxes were withheld and the pay was not in accordance with the wage laws. Id. at 805-06. Based on these practices, Kaszycki was later found to have violated certain sections of the Fair Labor Standards Act. See Donovan v. Kaszycki, 599 F.Supp. 860, 864 (S.D.N.Y.1984). Donald Trump visited both the Bonwit Teller job and an adjoining job where he noted that the Polish workers were good workers. Diduck, 774 F.Supp. at 805.

In or around March of 1980, members of Local 95 started working on the site. Id. at 806. Although the Polish workers were told that they would be discharged, some continued to work until June, 1980. Id. At some point, the Kaszycki Corporation and Local 95 entered into a collective bargaining agreement ("CBA") that covered the period from July 1, 1978 to June 30, 1981. Id. at 809. The CBA required the Kaszycki Corporation to make payments to the Local 95 Insurance Fund at a rate of eight percent of the "total wages paid to workers covered" by the agreement. Id. at 810 (quoting from the CBA P 33). In addition, the CBA required contributions to the Local 95 Pension Fund at a rate of ten percent of the total wages paid to workers. Id. The Polish workers were doing work covered by the CBA, and thus contributions for that work were due to the Funds. Diduck, 974 F.2d at 274. Thomas Macari, the vice president of Trump-Equitable, was not told about the CBA until after it was signed. Diduck, 774 F.Supp. at 810.

*2 In March, 1980, John Senyshyn [FN2] was the president of Local 95, and consequently was a trustee of both Funds. Diduck, 974 F.2d at 274. Senyshyn and John Osijuk were shop stewards at the demolition site. Id. This position required them to prepare and file with Local 95 weekly reports listing all workers, hours worked and wages. Id. Local 95 would then compare these reports with the payroll reports submitted by the Kaszycki Corporation to insure that the proper contributions to the Funds were being made. Id. In the instant case, neither the Kaszycki Corporation's nor the shop stewards' reports indicated the presence of Polish workers at the demolition site. Id. Thus, contributions to the Funds for their work were not made. Id.

Macari was Trump-Equitable's manager responsible for the demolition of the building. Diduck, 774 F.Supp. at 808. On May 9, 1980, Macari took over control of the finances for the demolition job from Kaszycki. Id. at 809. A special bank account was opened for the Kaszycki Corporation that required Macari's signature for all checks and withdrawals. Id. The bank signature card falsely identified Macari as a vice president of Kaszycki Corporation. Id. This special account was established to insure that payments would be made to the union members, the Funds, taxes, insurance and sick payments. Id. After May 9, no Trump-Equitable payments for the demolition job were made directly to the Kaszycki Defendants; rather, these payments were only made into this special account. Id.

"After May 9, Macari saw to it that bills were paid, that the workers were paid, that work was done, and personally signed for deliveries. He actively participated in paying the union workers. Trump-Equitable paid the union workers' payroll and suppliers of materials for the demolition job from this special account. In addition Trump-Equitable paid bills for the demolition job directly, apart from the special account." Id. (citations omitted). Kaszycki testified at trial that Macari "was running the show. He was in charge of the--he was representing Mr. Trump." (Tr. at 654). Kaszycki also testified in a deposition that about midway through the demolition project "I lost control of paying. Trump Organization, they pay to everybody. They gave me no money and they were making the payroll." Diduck v. Kaszycki & Sons Contractors, Inc., 874 F.2d 912, 915 (2d Cir.1989).

When these payments were made, "Trump-Equitable sent the Funds receipts stating that it was making the payments 'On behalf of Kaszycki & Sons Contractors, Inc. The Funds treated the checks as payments from the Kaszycki Corporation--not from Trump-Equitable--in its records. Macari informed the Kaszycki Corporation about these payments and advised the company that Trump-Equitable would hold it responsible for them." Diduck, 874 F.2d at 915. No action was ever taken by Trump-Equitable against the Kaszycki Corporation, apparently because it was insolvent. In late June, 1980, Macari determined that the Polish workers were no longer needed, and they were let go. Diduck, 774 F.Supp. at 809.

PRIOR PROCEEDINGS

*3 This action was commenced in August, 1983. The complaint alleged various causes of action. Plaintiffs have been granted a default judgment against the Kaszycki Defendants. In 1984, in an unrelated action stemming from the same events that gave rise to this case, the Honorable John E. Sprizzo of this Court found that the Kaszycki Defendants had violated various provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act. See Donovan v. Kaszycki & Sons Contractors, Inc., 599 F.Supp. 860 (S.D.N.Y.1984). Judge Sprizzo awarded the Polish workers a total of $254,523.59 in unpaid wages and overtime compensation, and the same amount as liquidated damages. Id. at

872. In 1988, Judge Stewart granted the Trump Defendants motion for summary judgment on what is now Plaintiffs' first cause of action. The Second Circuit reversed this decision in 1989. Diduck, 874 F.2d at 912.

The following year, Judge Stewart again granted the Trump Defendants' motion for summary judgment on the first cause of action, holding that the Plaintiffs' failure to comply with Rule 23.1 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure was not excused. Diduck, 737 F.Supp. at 802. Judge Stewart also permitted the Plaintiffs to amend their complaint by adding the Trump Defendants to what is now their second cause of action. Id. at 807. Following the sixteen day non-jury trial, Judge Stewart found that defendant Senyshyn had breached his fiduciary duties, and that the Trump Defendants had participated in this breach and were therefore jointly and severally liable. Diduck v. Kaszycki & Sons Contractors, Inc., 774 F.Supp. 802 (S.D.N.Y.1991). Judge Stewart ruled that $325,415.84 in contributions to the Funds should have been made on behalf of the Polish workers. Id. at 814. Judge Stewart also specifically held that the Trump Defendants' liability was based on their participation in the fiduciary breach.

On appeal, the Second Circuit affirmed in part and reversed in part. As to the first cause of action, the Court held that the demand requirement of Rule 23.1 was excused because such a demand would have been futile. Diduck, 974 F.2d at 287. As a result, the first cause of action is currently before this Court. As to the second cause of action, the Court affirmed Judge Stewart's decision except as to the finding of damages. Id. at 279. The Court held that Senyshyn could not be liable for fund contributions owed for work done by the Polish workers before Local 95 arrived on the job. Id. at 277. In addition, the Court remanded to determine the causal connection between the breach of fiduciary duty and the Fund's losses. Id. at 279. Specifically, on remand the trial court was to determine whether Trump-Equitable--given that it had paid $68,000--would have paid an additional $325,000 in Fund contributions. Id. In January, 1994, the case was reassigned to this Court. On March 9, 1994, the instant motions were fully submitted.

DISCUSSION

Summary Judgment

*4 Summary judgment shall be granted "if the pleadings, depositions, answers to interrogatories, and admissions on file, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact and that the moving party is entitled to a judgment as a matter of law." Fed.R.Civ.P. 56(c). The moving party bears the initial burden of showing the absence of a genuine issue of material fact. Celotex Corp. v. Catrett, 477 U.S. 317, 323 (1986). In determining whether any material facts are in dispute, I must draw all inferences in favor of the non-moving party. See Delaware & Hudson Ry. v. Consolidated Rail Corp., 902 F.2d 174, 177 (2d Cir.1990), cert. denied, 500 U.S. 928 (1991).

The ultimate inquiry for a summary judgment motion is "whether the evidence presents a sufficient disagreement to require submission to a jury or whether it is so one-sided that one party must prevail as a matter of law." Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, Inc., 477 U.S. 242, 251-52 (1986). When opposing parties cross-move for summary judgment, courts "must evaluate each party's motion on its own merits, taking care in each instance to draw all reasonable inferences against the party whose motion is under consideration." Heublein, Inc. v. United States, 996 F.2d 1455, 1461 (2d Cir.1993) (citations omitted).

The First Cause of Action

Both sides move for summary judgment as to the first cause of action, which alleges that the Trump Defendants are liable for the contributions to the Funds pursuant to Section 515, which is enforced under 29 U.S.C. s 1132(g)(2). Diduck, 974 F.2d at 287.

The Plaintiffs assert that the facts found by Judge Stewart in determining that the Trump Defendants were liable for knowingly participating in a breach of fiduciary duty collaterally estop the Trump Defendants from relitigating those facts as they apply to the first cause of action. When Judge Stewart ruled in favor of the Plaintiffs' breach of fiduciary duty claim, he specifically noted: "The Trump [D]efendants are liable because we find that they knowingly participated in [Senyshyn's] breach, not because we find they were the employer." Diduck, 774 F.Supp. at 814 (emphasis added). Furthermore, in a footnote, Judge Stewart stated: "we emphasize that the Trump [D]efendants' liability stems from our finding that they participated in the fiduciary breach. We do not rule on the question of whether they were employers...." Id. at 814 n. 1 (emphasis added).

Collateral estoppel, or issue preclusion, prevents a party from "relitigating in a second proceeding an issue of fact or law that was litigated and actually decided in a prior proceeding, if that party had a full and fair opportunity to litigate the issue in the prior proceeding and the decision of the issue was necessary to support a valid and final judgment on the merits." Metromedia Co. v. Fugazy, 983 F.2d 350, 365 (2d Cir.1992), cert. denied, 113 S.Ct. 2445 (1993) (citations omitted). While Judge Stewart made no legal conclusion that the Trump Defendants were employers as defined by Section 515, it is less certain that the findings made in reaching the breach of fiduciary claim ipso facto have preclusive effect as to the first claim. For a factual or legal issue to have preclusive effect, it must be identical to the issue determined in the prior proceeding. Id. Moreover, issues of fact bearing the same label are not identical "if the legal standards governing their resolution are significantly different." Id. (citations omitted). [FN3]

*5 To be liable under Section 515, the Plaintiffs necessarily contend that the Trump Defendants should be considered an employer who is thus obligated to the Funds for the past-due contributions under the CBA. [FN4] The term "employer" is defined in 29 U.S.C. s 1002(5) as "any person acting directly as an employer, or indirectly in the interest of an employer, in relation to an employee benefit plan...." Most courts, however, consider the issue to be not whether a defendant fits within the ERISA definition of "employer" but rather whether such a defendant is an "employer who is obligated to make contributions to a multiemployer plan." 29 U.S.C. s 1145. See Sasso v. Cervoni, 985 F.2d 49, 50 (2d Cir.), cert. denied, 113 S.Ct. 2964 (1993). See also International Bd. of Painters v. George A. Kracher, Inc., 856 F.2d 1546, 1547-48, 1550 (D.C.Cir.1988); Mason Tenders District Council Welfare Fund v. Dalton, 648 F.Supp. 1309, 1318 (S.D.N.Y.1986). Generally, an employer becomes obligated to make contributions when it has signed a collective bargaining agreement.

Although the Trump Defendants did not sign the CBA, nonsignatories to collective bargaining agreements can be held liable pursuant to Section 515 in special circumstances. See Starrett Paving, 845 F.2d at 26 (piercing corporate veil permissible under Section 515); Leddy v. Standard Drywall, Inc., 875 F.2d 383, 388 (2d Cir.1989) (controlling corporate official who conspires to defraud benefit funds can be liable under Section 515). Courts have also held that successors may be liable under Section 515. See Upholsterers' Int'l Union Pension Fund v. Artistic Furniture of Pontiac, 920 F.2d 1323, 1327 (7th Cir.1990). Cf. Stotter Div. of Graduate Plastics Co. v. District 65, 991 F.2d 997, 1002 (2d Cir.1993). Moreover, in this case the Second Circuit has twice acknowledged the viability of a joint employer theory under Section 515 by permitting the Plaintiffs to maintain their cause of action. Diduck, 974 F.2d at 287, 291; Diduck, 874 F.2d at 918, 921-23.

A. Joint Employer

The Plaintiffs contend that Trump-Equitable maintained sufficient control over the Polish workers to qualify as a joint employer with the Kaszycki Corporation, and therefore is liable for the unpaid contributions pursuant to Section 515. In a joint employer situation, it is assumed that the two employers are separate legal entities, but "have merely chosen to handle certain aspects of their employer-employee relationships jointly." Clinton's Ditch Co-op Co. v. N.L.R.B., 778 F.2d 132, 137 (2d Cir.1985) (citations omitted), cert. denied, 479 U.S. 814 (1986). Therefore, it is necessary to determine if one or both entities controlled the labor relations of certain workers. Browning-Ferris, 691 F.2d at 1122-23.

Drawing all reasonable inferences against the moving Plaintiffs, it is clear that there are disputed issues of fact that prevent granting summary judgment in their favor. Genuine issues of material fact exist as to whether or not Trump-Equitable could be considered a joint employer. Accordingly, the motion for summary judgment and the cross motion are denied.

B. Successor Employer

*6 The Plaintiffs also contend that the Trump Defendants are liable as a successor employer. Specifically, the Plaintiffs allege that after May 9, 1980--when Macari took over control of the finances for the demolition job-- Trump-Equitable essentially succeeded the Kaszycki Corporation as employers of both the Local 95 and Polish workers. As a result, the Plaintiffs contend that the Trump Defendants assumed the Kaszycki Corporation's obligations under the CBA.

While the Second Circuit has not explicitly held that a successor is liable for a predecessor's failure to make ERISA contributions, it has cited with approval to several cases that have so held. See Stotter Div. of Graduate Plastics Co. v. District 65, 991 F.2d 997, 1002 (2d Cir.1993). This determination is also fact specific and sufficient genuine issues of fact are present which preclude summary judgment.

C. Conspiracy to Defraud

Plaintiffs also contend that the Trump Defendants are liable under Section 515 because they "knowingly participated in a scheme to deprive the Funds of contributions due on behalf of the non-union Polish workers; they conspired with the employer (Kaszycki) and the Funds Trustee (Senyshyn) to employ the non-union Polish workers 'off-the-books' and deprive them of pension and welfare contributions owed to the Funds on their behalf." (Pl.'s Br. at 33).

The Second Circuit has acknowledged that it has not established the outer boundaries of individual liability for a corporation's ERISA obligations. See Sasso v. Cervoni, 985 F.2d 49, 51 (2d Cir.), cert. denied, 113 S.Ct. 2964 (1993). Thus, in Sasso, the Second Circuit pointed out that in "special circumstances" individual liability was warranted. Id. at 50. These "special circumstances" included corporate officers who conspired to defraud ERISA funds as well as non-fiduciaries who participated in a fiduciary's breach of ERISA trust obligations. Id. at 50-51.

While Leddy could be read to limit the imposition of individual liability to those who are "controlling corporate officials," the case law permits a broader interpretation. See Sasso, 985 F.2d at 51. The legislative purpose of ERISA would not be advanced if individuals who were not controlling corporate officials but nonetheless conspired to defraud employee benefit plans could not be held liable under Section 515. [FN5]

The Second Cause of Action

The Trump Defendants contend that the Plaintiffs' second cause of action is barred by the recent Supreme Court decision in Mertens v. Hewitt Assoc., 113 S.Ct. 2063 (1993). This claim alleges that the Trump Defendants, as non-fiduciaries, knowingly participated in defendant Senyshyn's breach of his fiduciary duty to the Funds.

In the instant motion, there is a genuine issue of material fact that requires a trial to determine whether the Plaintiffs are entitled to restitution from the Trump Defendants. Specifically, the trier must determine whether the Trump Defendants were unjustly enriched by benefitting from Local 95's continued labor without making contributions to the Funds for the Polish workers. Accordingly, the Trump Defendants motion for summary judgment on the second cause of action is denied.

*7 For the reasons stated above, all motions and cross motions for summary judgment are denied.

The Trump Defendants move in the alternative to strike the Plaintiffs' demand for a jury trial on their first cause of action. The motion is hereby denied. Additionally, Plaintiff's motion to amend the complaint is denied.

SO ORDERED.

FN1. The underlying facts of this case have been set forth in several prior opinions. See, e.g., Diduck v. Kaszycki & Sons Contractors, Inc., 774 F.Supp. 802 (S.D.N.Y.1991), aff'd in part and rev'd in part, 974 F.2d 270 (2d Cir.1992). Familiarity with these opinions is presumed, and only those facts necessary to put the present motions in context will be recited. The following recitation is based on the findings of fact from the sixteen day non-jury trial before the Honorable Charles E. Stewart of this Court, see id., on certain deposition and trial testimony, and on those facts that are undisputed in the parties' statements pursuant to Local Rule 3(g).

FN2. Until he passed away, John Senyshyn had been a defendant in this action. In December, 1993, Judge Stewart granted the Plaintiffs' motion to substitute Stella Senyshyn, as the representative of the Estate of John Senyshyn, as a defendant. (Memorandum Decision, Dec. 13, 1993).

FN3. The Trump Defendants' contention that Judge Sprizzo's findings in Donovan v. Kaszycki & Sons Contractors, Inc., 599 F.Supp. (S.D.N.Y.1984) collaterally estop the Plaintiffs from pursuing this cause of action is misplaced. The "basic premise of preclusion is that parties to a prior action are bound and nonparties are not bound." Wright, Miller & Cooper Federal Practice and Procedure, s 4449. In Donovan, the Secretary of Labor brought an action against the Kaszycki Defendants pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act. Neither the Plaintiffs nor the Trump Defendants were parties to that action.

FN4. Section 515 provides: Every employer who is obligated to make contributions to a multiemployer plan under the terms of the plan or under the terms of a collectively bargained agreement shall, to the extent not inconsistent with law, make such contributions in accordance with the terms and conditions of such plan or such agreement. 29 U.S.C. s 1145.

FN5. As noted by Judge Stewart, Thomas Macari was intimately involved in the Kaszycki Corporation's operations at the demolition site. Indeed, in May, 1980, Macari took over the finances of the demolition job from Kaszycki. Diduck, 774 F.Supp. at 809. Macari "knew the Polish workers were working 'off the books,' that they were doing demolition work, that they were non-union, that they were paid substandard wages with no overtime pay, and that they were paid irregularly if at all." Id. at 812. Moreover, before authorizing Trump-Equitable to make contributions to the Funds, Macari carefully checked the list of employees on the employer's report, and knew that this report was did not accurately list all of the workers at the demolition site. Id. at 813.

Dear Special Agent [redacted]

Recently, documents were sent to this address by certified mail but not directly to anyone by name. [redacted] unit chief, from the Washington, D.C. office also received documents but he forwarded them to this address, Economic Crimes Unit. Hopefully, you've had time to review them.

An investigation is utmost urgent now since there has been serious controversy occurring within the past weeks. I request an investigation of [redacted] regarding the money he received from the Trump organization in March-Sept 2003. [redacted] members of the Economic Development Authority Board received approximately $215,000 during this period [redacted]

(Handwritten initials and a circled '1')
b7C -2

Enclosed is a copy of an income statement that he turned in but it does not show the actual amount spent. This was not satisfactory. To this day, the members have not received a report of the money.

[redacted] continues to meet with consultants (see enclosure) but again, he does not mention the money. When asked about it, he states it is confidential. I suspect him of illegal activities due to his confidentiality and refusal of the report. He lives at [redacted] [redacted] OK and works at [redacted] in [redacted] OK

KIALEGE TRIBAL TOWN EDA
Quarterly Report

DATE; December 29,2003

October 2003; During this month the EDA continued to work with the consultants and waiting news from Trump to see how to continue our project. We received a letter from Trump & Casino Resorts on October 20th, which the letter was given to committee members.

November 2003; we continued to have contact with the consultants and they have been working trying to find other resources to continue our project. Also we have been in contact with the attorney [redacted] to find resources in Oklahoma. The problem we are having is getting land in trust. We have also been contacted by a tribal member who has trust land available for additional projects.

December 2003;

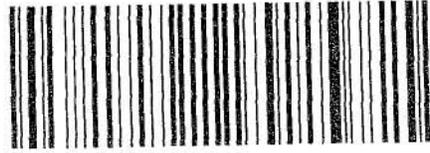

This month due to our finances, EDA office manager started working on the solid waste Grant. This started December 2,2003 to January 9 2003. Our consultant [redacted] was ill and off work for 2 weeks, he is now back to work and has set up meetings with consultants and other investors. Also [redacted] has set up meetings with investors. We also have contact with [redacted] from Mesa Development out of Shawnee. EDA and the Health Board have set up a meeting with [redacted] and he will be here of January 19,2004 to demonstrate his laser treatments. The EDA and the consultants are working to continue to find resources for the tribe. The first week of January we have several exciting meetings with the consultants and will keep you updated on any new progress.
