(Ed Note: We must have put this report out, for another card said the following: Among his victims were Miguel Angel QUEVEDO y Lastra, the former editor of the weekly magazine BOHEMIA (now in exile in the US and working for us; however, it is true that QUEVEDO is and was openly known to be a homosexual, and one Dr. Cardenas, fnu, Chief Surgeon of the University Hospital. However, it appears to the editor that source is speaking of Dr. Armando de Cardenas Aranguren, a pathologist who admitted homosexual relations with Cubela during an interrogation by SIM after the killing of Lt. Col. Antonio BLANCO Rico. However, there is no doubt that Cardenas still considered himself a friend to Cubela and as late as 1961 was trying to help get Cubela out of Cuba; this would hardly be true if Cubela had been blackmailing him for years. There are other indications that they appear to be good friends. In any case, this type of blackmail could work both ways - the individuals concerned could put the same charge against the blackmailer, no?)
