FBI FOIPA Addendum

As referenced in our letter responding to your Freedom of Information/Privacy Acts (FOIPA) request, the FBI FOIPA Addendum includes information applicable to your request. Part 1 of the Addendum includes standard responses that apply to all requests. Part 2 includes additional standard responses that apply to all requests for records on individuals. Part 3 includes general information about FBI records. For questions regarding Parts 1, 2, or 3, visit the www.fbi.gov/foia website under “Contact Us.” Previously mentioned appeal and dispute resolution services are also available at the web address.

Part 1: The standard responses below apply to all requests:

- (i) 5 U.S.C. § 552(c). Congress excluded three categories of law enforcement and national security records from the requirements of the FOIA [5 U.S.C. § 552(c) (2006 & Supp. IV (2010))]. FBI responses are limited to those records subject to the requirements of the FOIA. Additional information about the FBI and the FOIPA can be found on the www.fbi.gov/foia website.
- (ii) National Security/Intelligence Records. The FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of national security and foreign intelligence records pursuant to FOIA exemptions (b)(1), (b)(3), and PA exemption (j)(2) as applicable to requests for records about individuals [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(1), (b)(3), and (j)(2); 50 U.S.C § 3024(i)(1)]. The mere acknowledgment of the existence or nonexistence of such records is itself a classified fact protected by FOIA exemption (b)(1) and/or would reveal intelligence sources, methods, or activities protected by exemption (b)(3) [50 USC § 3024(i)(1)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that national security or foreign intelligence records do or do not exist.

Part 2: The standard responses below apply to all requests for records on individuals:

- (i) Requests for Records about any Individual—Watch Lists. The FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of any individual’s name on a watch list pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(7)(E) and PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(7)(E), (j)(2)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that watch list records do or do not exist.
- (ii) Requests for Records for Incarcerated Individuals. The FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of records which could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of any incarcerated individual pursuant to FOIA exemptions (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(F), and PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(F), and (j)(2)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that such records do or do not exist.

Part 3: General Information:

- (i) Record Searches. The Record/Information Dissemination Section (RIDS) searches for reasonably described records by searching those systems or locations where responsive records would reasonably be found. A reasonable search normally consists of a search for main files in the Central Records System (CRS), an extensive system of records consisting of applicant, investigative, intelligence, personnel, administrative, and general files compiled and maintained by the FBI in the course of fulfilling law enforcement, intelligence, and administrative functions. The CRS spans the entire FBI organization and encompasses the records of FBI Headquarters (FBIHQ), FBI Field Offices, and FBI Legal Attaché Offices (Legats) worldwide and includes Electronic Surveillance (ELSUR) records. For additional information about our record searches visit www.fbi.gov/services/information-management/foipa/requesting-fbi-records.
- (ii) FBI Records. Founded in 1908, the FBI carries out a dual law enforcement and national security mission. As part of this dual mission, the FBI creates and maintains records on various subjects; however, the FBI does not maintain records on every person, subject, or entity.
- (iii) Requests for Criminal History Records or Rap Sheets. The Criminal Justice Information Services (CJIS) Division provides Identity History Summary Checks – often referred to as a criminal history record or rap sheets. These criminal history records are not the same as material in an investigative “FBI file.” An Identity History Summary Check is a listing of information taken from fingerprint cards and documents submitted to the FBI in connection with arrests, federal employment, naturalization, or military service. For a fee, individuals can request a copy of their Identity History Summary Check. Forms and directions can be accessed at www.fbi.gov/about-us/cjis/identity-history-summary-checks. Additionally, requests can be submitted electronically at www.edo.cjis.gov. For additional information, please contact CJIS directly at (304) 625-5590.
- (iv) The National Name Check Program (NNCP). The mission of NNCP is to analyze and report information in response to name check requests received from federal agencies, for the purpose of protecting the United States from foreign and domestic threats to national security. Please be advised that this is a service provided to other federal agencies. Private citizens cannot request a name check.

Re: 80-HQ-1077659, 1/4/2002

On June 6, 2000, victim Oscar Velasquez went to the residence of Regina DeFrancisco to pick her up for a date. When he arrived, Regina told him that she was not ready to go and asked him to come into the residence to wait. He waited in the living room along with Regina's minor sister, Margaret, and a friend while DeFrancisco went down into the basement. A short time later, she called upstairs for him to join her in the basement. As he went down into the basement, he was followed by Margaret. Once downstairs, he was shot in the back of the head.

After attempting to clean up the blood, the sisters allegedly wrapped the body in plastic and loaded it in the trunk of the victim's car. Regina, accompanied by her sister and the friend, then allegedly drove the car to a vacant lot, where they removed the body from the trunk and set it on fire. After attempting to sell the victim's car without success, the car was abandoned and also set on fire.

On June 29, 2000, state warrants were issued by the Circuit Court of Cook County, Illinois, charging the DeFrancisco sisters with first degree murder. On August 10, 2000, federal warrants were issued by the United States District Court, Northern District of Illinois, charging the sisters with unlawful flight to avoid prosecution.

crimes allegedly occurred in retaliation for an alleged drug debt owed by the victim's stepbrother.

It is alleged that on August 6, 2000, following orders from Jesse Hollywood, two accomplices set out to kidnap the victim's brother, but failed to locate him. Instead, the victim was located, forced into a van and transported to the residence of a third accomplice. The victim remained there for two days until he was transferred to a motel in Santa Barbara. Then, on August 8, 2000, the victim was transported to a rural area north of Goleta, California allegedly by the three accomplices and with the assistance of a fourth accomplice. The victim was placed in a recently dug grave, gagged with duct tape and shot. The victim's body was discovered in the shallow grave by hikers.

Hollywood's accomplices have been arrested, however, Hollywood remains at large. Since August 14, Hollywood is believed to have traveled to the Las Vegas, Nevada and Colorado Springs, Colorado areas. He is believed to have returned to Los Angeles on August 23, 2000. Hollywood may have now assumed another identity and made arrangements to leave the country.

Yolanda Tolentino Ricaforte is wanted for her alleged involvement in an illegal gambling operation which began in approximately 1998 in the Republic of the Philippines. Ricaforte and an accomplice were co-conspirators with former Philippine President, Joseph Ejercito Estrada, who collected tens of millions of dollars in illegal gambling payoffs during his 31 months in office. For approximately two years, Ricaforte allegedly audited the collection and disbursement of the illegal payoffs to Estrada, and kept a ledger in which the individuals making payments to Estrada were given aliases. Ricaforte is also accused of opening several bank accounts in her name, which were used to deposit the illegal payoffs. Her accomplice allegedly funneled the payoffs and other unrelated illegal kickbacks to Estrada.

In early 2001, Ricaforte and her accomplice separately fled the Philippines after Estrada was removed from office. In approximately April of 2001, Estrada, Ricaforte, her accomplice, and others were charged in the Philippines with the crime of "Plunder", which is defined under Philippine law as the accumulation of "... ill-gotten wealth through a combination or series of overt criminal acts..." Estrada is currently on trial in the Philippines. The Government of the Philippines requested the assistance of the United States Government with the arrest and extradition of Ricaforte and her accomplice.

On November 25, 2001, Ricaforte's accomplice was arrested in Las Vegas, Nevada, and is in custody awaiting an extradition hearing, which is currently scheduled for November 4, 2002. allegedly audited the collection and disbursement of the illegal payoffs to Estrada, and kept a ledger in which the individuals making payments to Estrada were given aliases. Ricaforte is also accused of opening several bank accounts in her name, which were used to deposit the illegal payoffs. Her accomplice allegedly funneled the payoffs and other unrelated illegal kickbacks to Estrada.

In early 2001, Ricaforte and her accomplice separately fled the Philippines after Estrada was removed from office. In approximately April of 2001, Estrada, Ricaforte, her accomplice, and others were charged in the Philippines with the crime of "Plunder", which is defined under Philippine law as the accumulation of "... ill-gotten wealth through a combination or series of overt criminal acts..." Estrada is currently on trial in the Philippines. The Government of the Philippines requested the assistance of the United States Government with the arrest and extradition of Ricaforte and her accomplice.

On November 25, 2001, Ricaforte's accomplice was arrested in Las Vegas, Nevada, and an extradition hearing for him is currently scheduled for June of 2003. A warrant was issued for Ricaforte's arrest on December 6, 2001, pursuant to Title 18 of the United States Code, Section 3184, "Fugitives from Foreign Country to United States". However, Ricaforte's whereabouts remain unknown.

Markowitz between August 6 and August 8, 2000 in California. The crimes allegedly occurred in retaliation for an alleged drug debt owed by the victim's stepbrother.

It is alleged that on August 6, 2000, following orders from Jesse Hollywood, two accomplices set out to kidnap the victim's brother, but failed to locate him. Instead, the victim was located, forced into a van and transported to the residence of a third accomplice. The victim remained there for two days until he was transferred to a motel in Santa Barbara. Then, on August 8, 2000, the victim was transported to a rural area north of Goleta, California allegedly by the three accomplices and with the assistance of a fourth accomplice. The victim was placed in a grave which had been recently dug, gagged with duct tape and shot. The victim's body was discovered in the shallow grave by hikers.

Hollywood's accomplices have been arrested, however, Hollywood remains at large. Since August 14, 2000, Hollywood is believed to have traveled to the Las Vegas, Nevada and Colorado Springs, Colorado areas. He is believed to have returned to Los Angeles on August 23, 2000. Hollywood may have now assumed another identity and made arrangements to leave the country.
