

President Nixon and Julie Nixon
Executive Office Building
Telephone call, March 27, 1973
Tape 044-028

Operator: Miss Julie's calling.

Nixon: Yeah,

Operator: Alright, thankyou.

Nixon: Hello.

Julie: Hello.

Nixon: Hello.

Julie: Daddy!

Nixon: Hi Julie.

Julie: Hi. I wanted to tell you that the bowling alley is finished and that it's beautiful.

Nixon: Oh, that's great, sweetie. Well, how nice...

Julie: I wanted you to know that it's so beautiful

Nixon: How nice of you to call.

Julie: It's the prettiest one I have ever seen.

Nixon: I'll get down to see it some time.

Julie: Good!

Nixon: Fine. And I won't get over tonight, as I told you but...

Julie: I know. Until tomorrow. We're expecting you for dinner.

Nixon: That's great. And you have a good time...

Julie: I wanted you to hear something cheery because it really is gorgeous.

Nixon: Great!

Julie: And also we have the new music machine up in the Solarium. It has a TV, and on top of the TV is a record player, and on top of that is a tape cassette. It's fabulous. You'll really enjoy that up there.

Nixon: That's great, sweetie. When does Mommie leave?

Julie: At three o'clock tomorrow.

Nixon: Fine, fine. I'll give her a call before I go. Bye.

Julie: Ok. Bye.

Transcribed from Nixon Library White House Tape 044-028 by Michael Dobbs for King Richard, 2021