SUBJECT: Drugs end Folygraph

Reports were received today stating that Edward R. Murrow, on his program last night, talked about the Russian use of drugs to produce hypnosis. He spoke of their use of a plant grown near Sevastopol. Fermission is requested to obtain a copy of his broadcast through the proper information procurement channel here in the Agency.

Within the last day or two, "To the Feople" (or "fleet the Feople") television show televised a demonstration of the Fordham Lie Detector. The demonstration was given by Dr. Kubits (spelling uncertain). During the demonstration, stress was put on the possible advantage in the use of the lie detector technique for loyalty investigations.
