DIR 37249 (OUT 68655)

1. Reference drug is an extremely sensitive device and its use is highly susceptible to detection. In addition we must logically estude that the have the same, or a similar, drug, and that our use of it would open the door for retaliation. For these reasons the drug can only be used a very limited number of times throughout the world. Readquarters feels, therefore, that its use should be monfined to targets of the very highest level.

2. Headquarters commends the continued efforts of the station to effect an exploitation of the Contacts in and assures the station that we are at empting, in coordination with the Staff, to determine the best possible plan, devices, and techniques for such operations. Headquarters will advice the station of any enditional information regarding referenced drug and its operational
