23 January 1968

MEMORANDUM FOR: HDQS

SUBJECT : Project Resistance
#533 989 I SD/1

1. Attached are articles appearing in The Kentucky Kernal from 15 January 1968 to 6 February 1968.

2. Your attention is invited to the articles regarding the demonstration against Central Intelligence Agency recruitment on campus and to the statement, "The Peace Action Group (PAG) will peacefully demonstrate against the CIA when they recruit on campus."

3. The following information is furnished regarding the Peace Action Group (PAG). An individual "drumming up support" for the W.E.B. Dubois Club was on the campus of the University of Kentucky to address the PAG.

4. The University of Kentucky Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) and the PAG are to be sponsors of a War and the Draft program.

5. Another sponsor of the War and the Draft is the Louisville Peace Conference or Council. One of the recent actions of the Louisville Peace Council was to march with Jeannette RANKIN on 16 January 1968. One of the marchers was Mrs. Ann BRADEN, spouse of Carl BRADEN, who refused to answer before a congressional committee if he was a Communist.

6. The Peace Action Group, the Students for a Democratic Society and the Louisville Peace Conference are to bring to the University of Kentucky for speaking Herbert APTEKAR, Communist, and Joseph MULLOY, a former Appalachian Volunteer worker indicted for sedition in 1967, but who was released by Federal Court, as the state sedition law was not constitutional. Two others indicted were field workers for the Southern Conference Education Fund, successor to the Southern Conference for Human Welfare, Carl BRADEN, Director.

7. The Appalachian Volunteers, MULLOY's employer, is directed by the Southern Mountains Project of Berea, Kentucky, of which BRADEN is a director. The Appalachian Volunteers is an offshoot of the Highlanders Research and Educational Center of Knoxville, Tennessee, directed by Miles HORTON; and a member of this organization's Board of Directors is Carl BRADEN.

8. PAG Chairman is Bill ALLISON, who according to the University of Kentucky Directory 1967-1968 is: William H. ALLISON, Junior, a Junior Law Student whose address is 9909 Third Street Road, Valley Station, Kentucky.

9. Identifying information regarding Don PRATT, Marshall of the protest is contained in the attached clippings and additional information regarding employment and past history was previously furnished under this case number.
