CBW, Mid-Atlantic Committee on Fort Detrick, met on 14 October 1968, at the home of [REDACTED]. Plans for the upcoming meeting in Frederick are still indefinite and the use of the Johnson High School auditorium in Frederick was refused. However, the Mid-Atlantic Committee has reportedly joined with the Town Committee, a student committee at Hood College, to co-sponsor a meeting at Hood College auditorium. [REDACTED] reported that one of the speakers she had lined up to speak at the Fort Detrick protest meeting could not accept due to previous engagements; however, she will endeavor to get one [REDACTED] who was reportedly employed at the United Nations at one time and is now [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] reported that she had contacted members of the SDS at both Johns Hopkins University and the University of Maryland and both groups were eager to meet with the Mid-Atlantic Committee. No further pertinent information. Next scheduled meeting to be held WSP headquarters at 1800 hours on the 22nd of October 1968.

Those attending are listed as follows:
