SITUATION INFORMATION REPORT

Leaders of the various left-wing organizations have turned their attention to the Republican National Convention scheduled for San Diego next August. There are meetings being held to discuss plans for the convention, but the results of these discussions and plans being developed may not be known for some time.

The San Diego Convention Coalition, a self-proclaimed group organized to coordinate demonstrations during the GOR Convention, is proposing 3 days of demonstrations. The first 2 days will be devoted to peaceful picketing and attempting to place issues before the convention. The third day was referred to as "Kamikaze Day," an obvious reference to a day of violence. George Katsiaficas (former SDS'er) a leader of the San Diego Convention Coalition reportedly has contacted William Kittredge to obtain his assistance in working with the Coalition. Kittredge is a past coordinator of the New York chapter of the May Day Collective, the militant antiwar group responsible for disrupting Washington last spring. He also is closely associated with several other groups on the eastern seaboard.

In December 1971 a series of meetings were held at the Peter Stuyvesant Farm at Allamuchy, New Jersey out of which the "Allamuchy Tribe" was formed. The tribe was organized to direct movement activities during the election year, culminating with demonstrations at the Republican National Convention. The organization has now moved into office space in New York City and has changed its name to the Election Year Strategy Information Center. Leaders of the organization are Rennie Davis, former member of SDS and one of the defendants in the Chicago 7 trials; Jerry Rubin, a self-professed Communist, Chicago 7 defendant and former leader of the Youth International Party; and Stewart Albert and Jay Craven, both of whom were activists in May Day Collectives and who participated in the activities of the CPUSA influenced Peoples Coalition for Peace and Justice. Reportedly, a large sum of money has been given to this organization by former Beatle singer John Lennon. - FBI 1A 409728

A group of prisoner of war relatives has opened a political headquarters in Washington, D.C. to campaign against President Nixon in all the states which hold primary elections. The Capitol Hill headquarters is sponsored by a group called Families for Immediate Release which claims it represents some 500 families of servicemen either captured or missing in Southeast Asia. Miss Sheila Cronin recently announced that the group will send a delegation to New Hampshire where the nation's first Presidential primary is scheduled March 7. President Nixon is being opposed in the New Hampshire Republican primary by Rep. Paul M. McCloskey, an antiwar Republican from California and by Rep. John M. Ashbrook an Ohio conservative. Mark Post in major cities across the country on either April 14 or 17. These demonstrations are to be known as "R-Day" and stand for resist, refuse, and reform. They have also discussed the possibility of establishing a "Revolution City" at the Republican National Convention in San Diego. The Revolution City would be similar to the "Resurrection City" which was established in Washington, D.C. several years ago.

16-22 April, New York City and Los Angeles

The National Peace Action Coalition has announced plans for their spring offensive to be held on the above dates. The theme of the demonstration reportedly will be the same as that of past demonstrations: end the war in Vietnam, withdraw all troops and cease the bombing. Additional details will be reported as they become available.

28-30 April, 1 May, Chicago

The Young Workers Liberation League (youth group of the CPUSA) has announced they will hold its first convention since its founding (Feb. 1970) on the above dates. A draft resolution evaluating the work of YWLL developments among youth during the last two years, and projections for work in the future will be circulated among the membership for further refinement. The theme of the draft resolution will be how to build a mass united front in the shops, communities, high schools, college campuses and among soldiers and veterans. Jarvis Tyner, national chairman of the YWLL and vice-presidential candidate on the Communist Party ticket stated that the priorities of these united youth front movements must be freedom for Angela Davis, an end to the war, and defeat of President Nixon's economic offensive. International guests invited to the convention include representatives of the World Federation of Democratic Youth, of which YWLL is the U.S. affiliate, and the International Union of Students and their world affiliates. There will be guests invited from organizations and movements in the U.S. Plans are being made for a major May Day rally during the convention.

*29-30 April, Washington, D.C.

The National Spanish-speaking Coalition Task Force, Inc., has announced plans for a national convention on the above dates. A conference was held last October which disintegrated into acrimonious shouting over specifics, such as the prospect of a separate Spanish-speaking political party and Puerto Rican statehood. The prime issue at the April convention will obviously be the formation of a separate political party.

*July, Miami Beach, Florida

The Peoples Party (a coalition of peace groups including the Peace and Freedom Party and the New Party) has scheduled its national nominating convention a few days after the close of the Democratic National Convention in mid-July. The Peoples Party has nominated Dr. Benjamin Spock, pediatrician and peace activist as a stand-in Presidential candidate and Julian Hobson, a former Washington, D.C. School Board official for vice president, pending a convention decision.

At a recent news conference Dr. Spock surprised some reporters by taking some of the following positions that are essentially undistinguishable from those of George C. Wallace of Alabama:

1. He favors maintenance of neighborhood schools under the control of local citizens, attended by whatever racial balance of pupils happen to live in the immediate area.
2. He is opposed to integrating the public schools by busing, although he would not permit any discrimination in housing or employment.
3. He is unimpressed with the argument that he might help defeat the major party candidate.

Among the Spock policy positions that he does not presumably share with Governor Wallace are: withdrawal of American troops from all overseas bases, free medical care for all Americans, industrial production based on worker decisions and a ban on discrimination against homosexuals. Dr. Spock has denied that the Peoples Party had made him its provisional nominee so that it would be free to switch to Eugene J. McCarthy if the Minnesotan is not chosen at the Democratic Convention.
